An Act for the ſettling of the Honours and Dignities of John Duke of Marlborough upon his Poſterity, and annexing the Honour and Manor of Woodſtock, and Houſe of Bleinheim, to go along with the ſaid Honours.

WHEREAS the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, having with much Satiſfaction conſidered the many great Actions which John Duke of Marlborough has performed in Her Majeſty's Service, to the Honour of his Country, and for the Good of the Common Cauſe of Europe (ſuch Actions as the wiſeſt and greateſt People have rewarded with Statues and Triumphs) and being extremely deſirous to expreſs the juſt Senſe they have of his Merit in a peculiar and diſtinguiſhing Manner, and in order to perpetuate the Memory thereof, that his Titles and Honours, with his Right of Precedence, might be ſettled and continued in his Poſterity by Act of Parliament, as the Method moſt effectual for that End, and beſt ſuiting ſo great an Occaſion: Yet having always a juſt Regard for the Prerogatives of the Crown (Her Majeſty being the ſole Fountain of Honour) thought it their Duty, in the firſt Place, by their humble Addreſs, to have Recourſe to Her Majeſty for Her Royal Allowance, before any Order given for bringing in a Bill of ſuch a Nature; and by their ſaid Addreſs did humbly deſire, Her Majeſty would be graciouſly pleaſed to let them know, in what Manner it would be moſt acceptable to Her Majeſty, the ſaid Titles and Honours ſhould be limited: In anſwer whereto, Her Majeſty hath been pleaſed moſt graciouſly to declare, That nothing could be more acceptable to Her than the ſaid Addreſs, and that She was entirely ſatisfied with the Services of the Duke of Marlborough, and therefore could not but be pleaſed they had ſo juſt a Senſe of them; and did thereby declare Her Royal Intention to be, That after the Determination of the Eſtate which the Duke of Marlborough now has in his Titles and Honours, the ſame ſhould be limited in ſuch Manner as is herein after declared and enacted; and Her Majeſty was pleaſed in Her moſt gracious Anſwer to the ſaid Addreſs, further to declare, That She thought is would be proper that the Honour and Manor of Woodſtock, and the Houſe of Bleinheim, ſhould always go along with the Titles, and did therefore recommend that Matter to their Conſideration: And the Duke of Marlborough thereupon declaring, that he had made it his humble Requeſt to Her Majeſty, and did now deſire, That the Manor and Park of Woodſtock, and the Houſe of Bleinheim, after the Deceaſe of the Dutcheſs of Marlborough, ſhould go along, and be enjoyed with the Titles: And whereas the ſaid John Duke of Marlborough, was by ſeveral Letters Patents, created Baron Churchill of Sandridge, and Earl of Marlborough, to him and the Heirs Males of his Body: And by Letters Patents, bearing Date the Fourteenth Day of December, in the Firſt Year of Her now Majeſty's Reign, was created Marqueſs of Blandford, and Duke of Marlborough, to him and the Heirs Males of his Body: Therefore for perpetuating the Memory of the ſeveral great Actions performed by the ſaid Duke, and for ſettling and continuing the Titles and Honours aforeſaid, and the Right of Precedence, in his Poſterity; CAP. IV.

An Act for ſettling upon John Duke of Marlborough and his Poſterity, a Penſion of Five thouſand Pounds per Annum, for the more Honourable Support of their Dignities, in like Manner as his Honours and Dignities, and the Honour and Manor of Woodſtock, and Houſe of Bleinheim, are already limited and ſettled.

MOST gracious Sovereign, Whereas the moſt noble John Duke of Marlborough, was by ſeveral Letters Patents, created Baron Churchill of Sandridge, and Earl of Marlborough, to him and the Heirs Males of his Body: And by other Letters Patents, bearing Date the Fourteenth Day of December, in the Firſt Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, in Conſideration of his great and eminent Services to Your Majeſty and Your Allies, as well by his prudent Negotiations as Your Majeſty's Plenipotentiary at the Hague, where to the mutual Advantage of Your Majeſty and the States General of the United Provinces, he ſettled an intire Confidence between Your Majeſty and the States General, as by his Valour and good Conduct in the Command of the Confederate Armies abroad, was created Marquiſs of Blandford, and Duke of Marlborough, to him and the Heirs Males of his Body: And whereas by other Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, bearing Date the Two and twentieth Day of December, in the Firſt Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, Your Majeſty was graciouſly pleaſed, as a further Mark of Your Royal Favour and Satisfaction with his Services aforeſaid, and for the better Support of his ſaid Dignity, to give and grant unto the ſaid John Duke of Marlborough, One Annuity or yearly Penſion of Five thouſand Pounds of lawful Engliſh Money, to be iſſuing and payable out of the Rents, Iſſues, Profits, Incomes, Revenues, Sum and Sums of Money whatſoever, due and payable, or which ſhould from time to time ariſe, grow due, or be payable out of, by, or in Reſpect of Your Majeſty's General Letter Office, Poſt Office, or Office of Poſt Maſter General, or for or by Reaſon of the Poſtage or Carriage of Letters, Packets, or other Things within Your Majeſty's Kingdom of England, or elſewhere, to have, receive, and enjoy the ſaid Annuity or yearly Penſion of Five thouſand Pounds, unto the ſaid John Duke of Marlborough, and the Heirs Males of his Body, for and during Your Majeſty's natural Life, the ſame to be computed from the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangel then laſt paſt, and to be paid quarterly at the Four moſt uſual Feaſts or Terms in the Year (that is to ſay) the Feaſt of the Birth of our Lord Chriſt, the Annunciation of the Bleſſed Virgin Mary, the Nativity of Saint John the Baptiſt, and Saint Michael the Archangel, by even and equal Portions: And whereas an Act paſſed in the Third Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better enabling Her Majeſty to grant the Honour and Manor of Woodſtock, with the Hundred of Wootton, to the Duke of Marlborough and his Heirs, in Conſideration of the eminent Services by him performed to Her Majeſty and the Publick, wherein 'tis mentioned and recited, That the eminent and unparallel'd Services of the ſaid Duke to Your Majeſty and the Crown of England, were well known, not only to Your Majeſty and all Your Subjects, but to all Europe; and that the Alliances which Your Majeſty's Royal Brother King WILLIAM the Third, of glorious Memory, had, in a little Time before his Death, contracted, by the Miniſtry of the ſaid Duke, as His Majeſty's Ambaſſador extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the States General of the United Provinces, for preſerving the Liberties of Europe againſt the Ambition of France, were immediately after Your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne, by the ſaid Duke, then employed by Your Majeſty in the ſame Character, confirmed and improved, and that others were contracted, whereby the Confederacy, which had been diſſolved at the End of the laſt War, was re-united in a ſtricter and firmer League; and that in the Firſt Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, the ſaid Duke of Marlborough had ſo well executed his Commiſſion of Captain General and Commander in Chief of Your Majeſty's Forces, that he not only ſecured and extended the Frontier of Holland, by taking the Towns and Fortreſſes of Venlo, Ruremond, Stevenſwart and Liege, but ſoon obliged the Enemy, (who had been at the Gates of Nemeghen) to ſeek Shelter behind their Lines; and in the next Campaign, by taking Bon, Huy, and Limburg, added all the Country between the Rhine and the Maes to the Conqueſts of the preceding Year; and that in the memorable Year One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, when Your Majeſty was generouſly pleaſed to take the Reſolution of reſcuing the Empire from that immediate Ruin, to which, by the Defection of the Elector of Bavaria, it was expoſed, the Meaſures, which by Your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs had been deviſed and concerted, were purſued by the ſaid Duke with the utmoſt Diligence, Secrecy, and good Conduct, in leading the Forces of Your Majeſty and Your Allies, by a long and difficult March, to the Banks of the Danube; where the ſaid Duke immediately upon his Arrival did attack and force the Bavarians, (aſſiſted by the French) in their ſtrong Intrenchments at Schellenbergh, paſſed the Danube, diſtreſſed the Country of Bavaria, and a Second Time fought the Enemy, who had been reinforced by a Royal Army of the French King's beſt Troops, commanded by a Marſhal of France, and on the Second Day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, after a bloody Battle at Bleinheim, (although the Enemy had the Advantage of Number and Situation) gain'd the moſt abſolute and glorious Victory as had been recorded in the Hiſtory of any Age, by which Bavaria being intirely reduced, and Ratiſbon, Augsbourgh, Ulm, Memminghen, and other Imperial Towns recovered, the Liberty of the Diet and the Peace of the Empire were reſtored, and Landau, Treeves, and Traarbach being taken, the War was carried into the Dominions of France; all which happy Atchievements of the ſaid Duke apparently tended, not only to the Honour and Safety of Your Majeſty and Your Subjects, and of their Poſterity, but alſo towards the future Tranquility of Europe; and that Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of England in Parliament aſſembled, thought themſelves thereupon obliged in an humble Addreſs to Your Majeſty, to expreſs their Senſe of the ſaid glorious Victories, and humbly to deſire Your Majeſty, That You would be graciouſly pleaſed to conſider of ſome proper Means to perpetuate the Memory of ſuch ſignal Services; and that Your Majeſty was thereupon pleaſed to ſignify Your Intention to grant the Intereſt of the Crown in the Honour and Manor of Woodſtock and Hundred of Wootton to the ſaid Duke and his Heirs; whereupon at the humble Petition of Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Commons, it was enacted, That it ſhould and might be lawful to and for Your Majeſty by any Letters Patents, under the Great Seal of England, to give and grant unto the ſaid John Duke of Marlborough, and his Heirs and Aſſigns for ever, all that the ſaid Honour and Manor of Woodſtock, and the Hundred of Wootton, and the Park of Woodſtock in the County of Oxon, and divers other Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in the ſaid recited Act particularly mentioned or deſcribed; to be held of Your Majeſty, Your Heirs and Succeſſors, as of Your Caſtle of Windſor, in Free and common Soccage, by Fealty, rendring to Your Majeſty, Your Heirs and Succeſſors, on the Second Day of Auguſt yearly for ever, at Your ſaid Caſtle of Windſor, One Standard or Colours with Three Flower de Luces painted thereupon, for all Manner of Rents, Services, Exactions, and Demands whatſoever: In purſuance of which ſaid Act of Parliament, Your Majeſty by Your Letters Patents, bearing Date the Fifth Day of May, in the Fourth Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, was graciouſly pleaſed to grant all that the ſaid Honour and Manor of Woodſtock and Hundred of Wootton, and divers other Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in the ſaid Letters Patents particularly mentioned or deſcribed, to the ſaid Duke of Marlborough, his Heirs and Aſſigns for ever: And whereas in the Beginning of the Year, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, the ſaid Duke of Marlborough led Your Majeſty's Forces, and thoſe of the Allies, to the Moſelle, where, by the Progreſs made in the preceding Year, a fair Proſpect was afforded of removing the War from the Countries of Your Allies, into the Enemy's own Territories, but that great Deſign, through unforeſeen Accidents, was rendred impracticable;

ble; and the Enemy taking Advantage of the Remoteneſs of Your ſaid General, and the Troops under his Command, preſs'd the Armies of the States General, which were left for the Defence of their Frontiers, with a ſuperior Force: On this extraordinary Occaſion, the Duke ſhew'd all the Parts of a great Captain, and at the ſame Time the Zeal he had for Your Majeſty's Service, and true Regard to Your Allies; by a ſpeedy March he returned to the Maes, where a new Face of Affairs immediately appeared, and Your Majeſty's good Allies the States General were delivered from the Uneaſineſs they were under, Leige was relieved, Huy retaken, and the Enemies obliged to retire behind their Lines, which they thought impregnable: But the ſaid Duke, with a ſurprizing Conduct and Bravery, on the Seventh Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, with an inconſiderable Loſs, forced the ſame, defeated great Part of the Enemy's Forces, and obliged their whole Army to a precipitate Retreat; and although all the Advantages were not obtained which the Duke had propoſed to himſelf from that Succeſs, yet it confirmed the Minds of Your Majeſty's Allies, and produced that happy Conſequence of the Duke's being intruſted with ſuch a Power, as gave him an Opportunity of performing thoſe great Actions, which were executed in the laſt glorious Campaign; in which the Enemy confiding in the Superiority of their Army, compoſed of their choiceſt Troops, gave the Duke of Marlborough an Opportunity of attacking them, which he did at Ramellies, on the Twelfth Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, with ſuch Reſolution and Conduct, that in Two Hours Time he obtained a moſt compleat and glorious Victory, and proſecuted his Advantage without any Intermiſſion during the whole Campaign: The Battle of Ramellies was followed by the immediate Surrender of Louvain, Bruſſels, Malines, Liere, Gant, Oudenard, Antwerp, Dam, Bruges, and Courtray, and the taking of Oſtend, Menin, Dendermond, and Aeth; moſt of which Places had heretofore employed the greateſt Generals whole Campaigns in their Sieges: And thus almoſt the entire Spaniſh Netherlands, which had been contended for ſo many Ages, were conquered in One Summer: And whereas by an Act paſſed in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the ſettling of the Honours and Dignities of John Duke of Marlborough upon his Poſterity, and annexing the Honour and Manor of Woodſtock, and Houſe of Bleinheim, to go along with the ſaid Honours, it was for perpetuating the Memory of the ſeveral great Actions performed by the ſaid Duke, and for ſettling and continuing the above-mentioned ſeveral Titles and Honours, and the Right of Precedence, in his Poſterity, amongſt divers other Things therein contained, enacted, That in Default of Heirs Males of the Body of the ſaid Duke of Marlborough iſſuing, the States, Degree, Stiles, Titles, Dignities, and Honours aforeſaid, ſhould continue, remain, be veſted in, and ſhould be held and enjoyed by the Lady Harriott, eldeſt Daughter of the ſaid Duke of Marlborough, and Wife of Francis Godolphin Eſquire, Son and Heir Apparent of Sidney Lord Godolphin, Lord High Treaſurer of England, and the Heirs Males of her Body begotten; and for Default of ſuch Iſſue, ſhould continue, remain, be veſted in, and held and enjoyed by Anne Counteſs of Sunderland, Second Daughter of the ſaid Duke of Marlborough, and Wife of Charles Earl of Sunderland, and the Heirs Males of her Body begotten; and for Default of ſuch Iſſue, ſhould continue, remain, be veſted in, and held and enjoyed by Elizabeth Counteſs of Bridgwater, Third Daughter of the ſaid Duke of Marlborough, and Wife of Scroope Earl of Bridgwater, and the Heirs Males of her Body begotten; and for Default of ſuch Iſſue, ſhould continue, remain, be veſted in, and held and enjoyed by the Lady Mary, youngeſt Daughter of the ſaid Duke of Marlborough, and Wife of John Montagu Eſq; called Marquiſs of Monthermer, Son and Heir Apparent of Ralph Duke of Montagu, and the Heirs Males of her Body begotten; and for Default of ſuch Iſſue, then to continue, remain, and be veſted in, and held and enjoyed by all and every other the Daughter and Daughters of the ſaid Duke of Marlborough to be begotten, ſeverally and ſucceſſively one after the other, as they ſhall be in Priority of Birth, and the Heirs Males of their reſpective Bodies iſſuing; the elder of ſuch Daughters and the Heirs Males of her Body, to be preferred, and take before the younger of ſuch Daughters, and the Heirs Males of her Body; and for Default of ſuch Iſſue, then to continue, remain, be veſted in, and held and enjoyed by the Firſt Daughter of the Body of the ſaid Lady Harriott Godolphin begotten, and the Heirs Males of the Body of ſuch Firſt Daughter begotten; and for Default of ſuch Iſſue, then to continue, remain, be veſted in, and held and enjoyed by all and every other the Daughter and Daughters of the Body of the ſaid Lady Harriott Godolphin, ſeverally and ſucceſſively one after the other, as they ſhall be in Priority of Birth, and the Heirs Males of their reſpective Bodies iſſuing; the elder of ſuch Daughters and the Heirs Males of her Body, to be preferred and take before the younger of ſuch Daughters, and the Heirs Males of her Body; and for Default of ſuch Iſſue, then to continue, remain, be veſted in, and held and enjoyed by the Firſt Daughter of the Body of the ſaid Anne Counteſs of Sunderland begotten, and the Heirs Males of the Body of ſuch Firſt Daughter begotten; and for Want of ſuch Iſſue, then to continue, remain, be veſted in, and held and enjoyed by all and every other the Daughter and Daughters of the Body of the ſaid Anne Counteſs of Sunderland begotten, ſeverally and ſucceſſively one after the other, as they ſhall be in Priority of Birth, and the Heirs Males of their reſpective Bodies iſſuing; the elder of ſuch Daughters, and the Heirs Males of her Body, to be preferred, and take before the younger of ſuch Daughters, and the Heirs Males of her Body; and for Default of ſuch Iſſue, then to continue, remain, be veſted in, and held and enjoyed by the Firſt Daughter of the Body of the ſaid Elizabeth Counteſs of Bridgwater begotten, and the Heirs Males of the Body of ſuch Firſt Daughter begotten; and for Want of ſuch Iſſue, then to continue, remain, be veſted in, and held and enjoyed by all and every other the Daughter and Daughters of the Body of the ſaid Elizabeth Counteſs of Bridgwater begotten, ſeverally and ſucceſſively one after the other, as they ſhall be in Priority of Birth, and the Heirs Males of their reſpective Bodies iſſuing; the elder of ſuch Daughters, and the Heirs Males of her Body, to be preferred and take before the younger of ſuch Daughters, and the Heirs Males of her Body; and for Default of ſuch Iſſue, then to continue, remain, be veſted in, and held and enjoyed by the Firſt Daughter of the Body of the ſaid Lady Mary Montagu begotten, and the Heirs Males of the Body of ſuch Firſt Daughter begotten; and for Want of ſuch Iſſue, then to continue, remain, be veſted in, and held and enjoyed by all and every other the Daughter and Daughters of the Body of the ſaid Lady Mary Montagu begotten, ſeverally and ſucceſſively, one after the other, as they ſhall be in Priority of Birth; the elder Daughter of every ſuch Daughter, and the Heirs Males of her Body, to be preferred and take before the younger of ſuch Daughters, and the Heirs Males of her Body; the Daughter and Daughters of the elder of ſuch then after to be born Daughters, and the Heirs Males of her and their reſpective Bodies iſſuing, to be preferred and take, in Manner aforeſaid, before the Daughter and Daughters of the younger of ſuch after born Daughters; and for Default of ſuch Iſſue, to all and every other the Iſſue Male and Female lineally deſcending of or from the ſaid Duke of Marlborough, in ſuch Manner, and for ſuch Eſtate, as the ſame are by the ſaid Act limited to the before-mentioned Iſſue of the ſaid Duke; it being intended, and thereby enacted, That the ſaid Honours ſhould continue, remain, and be veſted in all the Iſſue of the ſaid Duke, ſo long as any ſuch Iſſue Male or Female ſhall continue, and be held and enjoyed by them ſeverally and ſucceſſively, in Manner and Form aforeſaid; the elder and the Deſcendants of every elder Iſſue to be preferred before the younger of ſuch Iſſue:

Intail of Woodſtock, Bleinheim, and Wootton.

And to the Intent that the ſaid Honour, Manor, and Park of Woodſtock, and the Houſe erecting there, called Bleinheim, and the Hundred of Wootton, and all other the Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, which in and by the ſaid Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, bearing Date the ſaid Fifth Day of May, in the Fourth Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, were by Your Majeſty, purſuant to the ſaid Act of Parliament paſſed in the Third Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, granted to the ſaid Duke of Marlborough, and his Heirs, and the Advowſons by the ſaid Letters Patents alſo granted, might always go along, and be enjoyed with the Titles, Honours, and Dignities, as aforeſaid, as therein after is mentioned, it was thereby further enacted, That the ſaid Duke of Marlborough ſhould ſtand and be ſeized of all the ſaid Honour, Manor, and Park of Woodſtock, Manors, Houſe, and Premiſſes, granted by the ſaid laſt-mentioned Letters Patents, during his Life, without Impeachment of Waſte; and from and after his Deceaſe, that the ſame ſhould be and remain unto, and be held and enjoyed by Sarah Dutcheſs of Marlborough, Wife of the ſaid Duke, for and during the Term of her natural Life; and from and after her Deceaſe, the ſame ſhould be and remain unto, and be held and enjoyed by the Heirs Males of the Body of the ſaid Duke of Marlborough begotten; and for Default of ſuch Iſſue, that then the ſame ſhould be and remain unto, and be held and enjoyed by all and every the Daughters of the ſaid Duke of Marlborough, and the Heirs Male of their reſpective Bodies iſſuing, and all others ſeverally and ſucceſſively, in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Titles, Honours and Dignities aforeſaid are therein before expreſſed and limited to go, and be enjoyed: And 'twas thereby provided and enacted, That neither the ſaid Duke of Marlborough, or the Heirs Male of his Body, nor any of his Daughters, or the Heirs Males of their Bodies, or any other Perſon to whom the Premiſſes ſhould come or deſcend by Virtue of the Limitations aforeſaid, ſhould have any Power, by Fine or Recovery, or any other Act, Aſſurance, or Conveyance in the Law, to hinder, bar, or diſinherit any the Perſon or Perſons to or upon whom the ſaid Manors, Houſe, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Premiſſes, were thereby veſted or limited, from holding or enjoying the ſame, according to the Limitations in the ſaid Act mentioned (other than and except ſuch Leaſes as the ſaid Duke and Dutcheſs might make, by Virtue of the Powers therein before-mentioned, and ſuch other Leaſes as Tenants in Tail might and were enabled to make, by Virtue of the Statute made in the Two and thirtieth Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Eighth, and Grants of Lands or Tenements held by Copy of Court-roll, according to the Cuſtoms of the reſpective Manors aforeſaid) but that all ſuch Fines, Recoveries, Act, Aſſurances, and Conveyances, other than ſuch Leaſes and Grants by Copy, as aforeſaid, ſhould be, and were thereby declared and enacted to be void.

Addreſs of the Houſe of Commons. Arrears due for this Work provided for by 1 Geo. 1. ſtat. 2. c. 12. ſ. 34.

And whereas we Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Commons, taking into our Conſideration the many eminent Services of the ſaid Duke of Marlborough, whereby the Glory of Your Majeſty's Government, the Honour and Safety of Your Kingdoms, and the Intereſt of the common Cauſe have been ſo highly advanced, did with all Submiſſion addreſs ourſelves to Your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, humbly to deſire, That as Your Majeſty is, at Your Expence, graciouſly pleaſed to erect the Houſe of Bleinheim as a Monument of his glorious Actions, and the Houſe of Peers, by Your Majeſty's Permiſſion, have given Riſe to the ſaid Act paſſed in this preſent Seſſion for continuing his Honours to his Poſterity, we Your Majeſty's moſt obedient Commons might be permitted to expreſs our Senſe of ſo diſtinguiſhing a Merit, and our ready Diſpoſition to enable Your Majeſty to make ſome Proviſion for the more honourable Support of his Dignities in his Poſterity, in ſuch Manner as ſhould be moſt agreeable to Your Majeſty, whereby the Gratitude of this whole Kingdom might remain upon Record to After-Ages, and incourage others to follow his great Example; to which Addreſs Your Majeſty was pleaſed to return this moſt gracious Anſwer, That Your Majeſty, in Conſideration of the great and eminent Services performed by the ſaid Duke in the Firſt Year of Your Reign, as well by his prudent Negotiations as Your Majeſty's Plenipotentiary at the Hague, as by his Valour and good Conduct in the Command of the confederate Armies Abroad, thought fit to grant to him and the Heirs Male of his Body, the Title of a Duke of this Realm; and as a further Mark of Your Favour and Satisfaction with his Services, and for the better Support of his Dignity, Your Majeſty had granted to the ſaid Duke and the Heirs Male of his Body, during Your Majeſty's Life, a Penſion of Five thouſand Pounds per Annum out of the Revenue of the Poſt Office; and that an Act having paſſed this Seſſions for ſettling the Honours and Dignities of the ſaid Duke upon his Poſterity, and annexing the Honour and Manor of Woodſtock and Houſe of Bleinheim to go along with the ſaid Honours; it would be very agreeable to Your Majeſty, if the Penſion of Five thouſand Pounds per Annum be continued and limited by Act of Parliament to his Poſterity, for the more honourable Support of their Dignities, in like Manner, as his Honours and the Honour and Manor of Woodſtock and Houſe of Bleinheim are already limited and ſettled:

The Queen's Anſwer.

We Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of England in Parliament aſſembled, duly conſidering Your Majeſty's moſt Gracious Anſwer, and alſo the wiſe Proviſion made by Your Majeſty, through Your Majeſty's abundant Grace and Goodneſs to Your People, by an Act paſſed in the Firſt Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, for preſerving the Inheritance of the ſeveral Revenues of the Crown, think ourſelves obliged to tranſmit to all ſucceeding Times the Memory of ſo many glorious Actions, together with the juſt Senſe of the Kingdom, after what Manner ſuch tranſcendent Merit ought to be rewarded; and thereupon do moſt humbly beſeech Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That in lieu of the ſaid Annuity or yearly Penſion of Five thouſand Pounds by the ſaid Letters Patents, bearing Date the Two and twentieth Day of December, in the Firſt Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, granted to the ſaid Duke of Marlborough, and the Heirs Males of his Body, during Your Majeſty's Life, as aforeſaid, which ſaid Penſion is from henceforth to ceaſe and determine, one Annuity or yearly Penſion of Five thouſand Pounds

Equivalent.

See 1 Geo. 1. ſtat. 2. c. 27. & 5 Geo. 1. c. 20.

That whereas by the Terms of this Treaty, the Subjects of Scotland, for preſerving an Equality of Trade throughout the united Kingdom, will be liable to ſeveral Cuſtoms and Exciſes now payable in England, which will be applicable towards Payment of the Debts of England, contracted before the Union; it is agreed, That Scotland ſhall have an Equivalent for what the Subjects thereof ſhall be ſo charged towards Payment of the ſaid Debts of England, in all Particulars whatſoever, in Manner following, viz. That before the Union of the ſaid Kingdoms, the Sum of Three hundred ninety eight thouſand and eighty five Pounds, Ten Shillings, be granted to Her Majeſty by the Parliament of England, for the Uſes after-mentioned, being the Equivalent to be anſwered to Scotland for ſuch Parts of the ſaid Cuſtoms and Exciſes upon all exciſeable Liquors with which that Kingdom is to be charged upon the Union, as will be applicable to the Payment of the ſaid Debts of England, according to the Proportions which the preſent Cuſtoms in Scotland, being Thirty thouſand Pounds per Annum, do bear to the Cuſtoms in England, computed at One million three hundred forty one thouſand five hundred and fifty nine Pounds per Annum; and which the preſent Exciſes on exciſeable Liquors in Scotland, being Thirty three thouſand and five hundred Pounds per Annum, do bear to the Exciſes on exciſeable Liquors in England, computed at Nine hundred forty ſeven thouſand ſix hundred and Two Pounds per Annum: Which Sum of Three hundred ninety eight thouſand eighty five Pounds, Ten Shillings, ſhall be due and payable from the Time of the Union. And in Regard that after the Union Scotland becoming liable to the ſame Cuſtoms and Duties payable on Import and Export, and to the ſame Exciſes on all exciſeable Liquors as in England, as well upon that Account, as upon the Account of the Encreaſe of Trade and People, (which will be the happy Conſequence of the Union) the ſaid Revenues will much improve beyond the before-mentioned annual Values thereof, of which no preſent Eſtimate can be made; yet nevertheleſs, for the Reaſons aforeſaid, there ought to be a proportionable Equivalent anſwered to Scotland; it is agreed, That after the Union there ſhall be an Account kept of the ſaid Duties ariſing in Scotland, to the end it may appear what ought to be anſwered to Scotland as an Equivalent for ſuch Proportion of the ſaid Encreaſe as ſhall be applicable to the Payment of the Debts of England. And for the further and more effectual anſwering the ſeveral Ends hereafter mentioned, it is agreed, That from and after the Union, the whole Encreaſe of the Revenues of Cuſtoms, and Duties on Import and Export, and Exciſes upon exciſeable Liquors in Scotland, over and above the annual Produce of the ſaid reſpective Duties, as above ſtated, ſhall go and be applied, for the Term of Seven Years, to the Uſes hereafter mentioned; and that, upon the ſaid Account there ſhall be anſwered to Scotland annually from the End of Seven Years after the Union, an Equivalent in Proportion to ſuch Part of the ſaid Encreaſe, as ſhall be applicable to the Debts of England; and generally, that an Equivalent ſhall be anſwered to Scotland for ſuch Parts of the Engliſh Debts, as Scotland may hereafter become liable to pay by reaſon of the Union, other than ſuch for which Appropriations have been made by Parliament in England, of the Cuſtoms, or other Duties on Export and Import, Exciſes on all exciſeable Liquors, in reſpect of which Debts, Equivalents are herein before provided. And as for the Uſes to which the ſaid Sum of Three hundred ninety eight thouſand eighty five Pounds, Ten Shillings, to be granted, as aforeſaid, and all other Monies which are to be anſwered or allowed to Scotland, as aforeſaid, are to be applied, it is agreed, That in the firſt Place, out of the aforeſaid Sum, what Conſideration ſhall be found neceſſary to be had for any Loſſes, which private Perſons may ſuſtain by reducing the Coin of Scotland to the Standard and Value of the Coin of England, may be made good; in the next Place, that the Capital Stock, or Fund of the African and Indian Company of Scotland advanced, together with Intereſt for the ſaid Capital Stock, after the Rate of Five per Centum per Annum, from the reſpective Times of the Payment thereof, ſhall be paid: Upon Payment of which Capital Stock and Intereſt, it is agreed, the ſaid Company be diſſolved and ceaſe, and alſo, that from the Time of paſſing the Act of Parliament in England, for raiſing the ſaid Sum of Three hundred ninety eight thouſand eighty five Pounds, Ten Shillings, the ſaid Company ſhall neither trade, nor grant Licence to trade; providing, that if the ſaid Stock and Intereſt ſhall not be paid in Twelve Months after the Commencement of the Union, that then the ſaid Company may from thenceforward trade, or give licence to trade, until the ſaid whole Capital Stock and Intereſt ſhall be paid. And as to the Overplus of the ſaid Sum of Three hundred ninety eight thouſand eighty five Pounds, Ten Shillings, after Payment of what Conſideration ſhall be had for Loſſes in repairing the Coin, and paying the ſaid Capital Stock and Intereſt, and alſo the whole Encreaſe of the ſaid Revenues of Cuſtoms, Duties, and Exciſes, above the preſent Value, which ſhall ariſe in Scotland, during the ſaid Term of Seven Years, together with the Equivalent which ſhall become due upon the Improvement thereof in Scotland after the ſaid Term; and alſo, as to all other Sums, which, according to the Agreements aforeſaid, may become payable to Scotland by Way of Equivalent, for what that Kingdom ſhall hereafter become liable towards Payment of the Debts of England; it it agreed, That the ſame be applied in the Manner following, viz. That all the publick Debts of the Kingdom of Scotland, as ſhall be adjuſted by this preſent Parliament, ſhall be paid: And that Two thouſand Pounds per Annum for the Space of Seven Years, ſhall be applied towards encouraging and promoting the Manufacture of coarſe Wooll within thoſe Shires which produce the Wooll; and that the Firſt Two thouſand Pounds Sterling be paid at Martinmas next, and ſo yearly at Martinmas, during the Space aforeſaid; and afterwards, the ſame ſhall be wholly applied towards the encouraging and promoting the Fiſheries, and ſuch other Manufactures and Improvements in Scotland, as may moſt conduce to the general Good of the united Kingdom. And it is agreed, That Her Majeſty be impowered to appoint Commiſſioners, who ſhall be accountable to the Parliament of Great Britain, for diſpoſing the ſaid Sum of Three hundred ninety eight thouſand and eighty Five Pounds, Ten Shillings, and all other Monies which ſhall ariſe to Scotland, upon the Agreements aforeſaid, to the Purpoſes before-mentioned: Which Commiſſioners ſhall be impowered to call for, receive, and diſpoſe of the ſaid Monies, in Manner aforeſaid, and to inſpect the Books of the ſeveral Collectors of the ſaid Revenues, and of all other Duties, from whence an Equivalent may ariſe: And that the Collectors and Managers of the ſaid Revenues and Duties be obliged to give to the ſaid Commiſſioners ſubſcribed authentick Abbreviates of the Produce of ſuch Revenues and Duties ariſing in their reſpective Diſtricts: And that the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall have their Office within the Limits of Scotland, and ſhall in ſuch Office keep Books containing Accounts of the Amount of the Equivalents, and how the ſame ſhall have been diſpoſed of from time to time, which may be inſpected by any of the Subjects, who ſhall deſire the ſame.

V. And it is hereby ſtatute and ordain'd, That this Act of Parliament, with the Eſtabliſhment therein contained, ſhall be held and obſerved in all Time coming, as a fundamental and eſſential Condition of any Treaty or Union to be concluded betwixt the Two Kingdoms, without any Alteration thereof, or Derogation thereto in any Sort for ever: As alſo, That this Act of Parliament, and Settlement therein contain'd, ſhall be inſert and repeated in any Act of Parliament that ſhall paſs for agreeing and concluding the foreſaid Treaty or Union betwixt the Two Kingdoms; and that the ſame ſhall be therein expreſly declared to be a fundamental and eſſential Condition of the ſaid Treaty or Union in all Time coming: Which Articles of Union, and Act immediately above-written, Her Majeſty, with Advice and Conſent aforeſaid, ſtatutes, enacts, and ordains to be and continue, in all Time coming, the ſure and perpetual Foundation of a compleat and entire Union of the Two Kingdoms of Scotland and England, under the expreſs Condition and Proviſion, that this Approbation and Ratification of the foreſaid Articles and Act ſhall be no ways binding on this Kingdom, until the ſaid Articles and Act be ratified, approved, and confirmed by Her Majeſty, with and by the Authority of the Parliament of England, as they are now agreed to, approved and confirmed by Her Majeſty, with and by the Authority of the Parliament of Scotland; declaring nevertheleſs, that the Parliament of England may provide for the Security of the Church of England as they think expedient, to take place within the Bounds of the ſaid Kingdom of England, and not derogating from the Security above provided for eſtabliſhing of the Church of Scotland within the Bounds of this Kingdom; as alſo the ſaid Parliament of England may extend the Additions and other Proviſions contained in the Articles of Union, as above inſert, in Favours of the Subjects of Scotland, to and in Favours of the Subjects of England; which ſhall not ſuſpend or derogate from the Force and Effect of this preſent Ratification, but ſhall be underſtood as herein included, without the Neceſſity of any new Ratification in the Parliament of Scotland.

VI. And laſtly, Her Majeſty enacts and declares, That all Laws and Statutes in this Kingdom, ſo far as they are contrary to, or inconſiſtent with, the Terms of theſe Articles, as above-mentioned, ſhall from and after the Union ceaſe and become void.

CAP. XX.

An Act for the better Encouragement of the Royal Luſtring Company.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of our moſt gracious Sovereign Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for prohibiting all Trade and Commerce with France; it is declared (amongſt other Things) That all Silks of the Manufacture of France, imported into this Kingdom, ſhall be ſeized and condemned, One Moiety to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to the Informer: And whereas divers of Her Majeſty's Subjects, under Colour of the ſaid Act, have taken upon them to ſell and diſpoſe of French Luſtrings and Alamodes ſo ſeized and forfeited, as if they were allowed to be uſed and worn in England, which is contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the ſaid Act, which was deſigned more effectually to prevent the Importation and Uſe of the ſaid Silks, and alſo to the manifeſt Prejudice of ſo profitable a Manufacture ſet up in this Kingdom by the Royal Luſtring Company, and thereby evading the Force of ſeveral Acts of Parliament paſt for the Encouragement of the ſaid Manufacture: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That neither the before recited Act for prohibiting all Trade and Commerce with France, nor any Thing therein contained, ſhall be conſtrued to extend to countenance the uſing and wearing any French Alamodes or Luſtrings in this Kingdom, but that the ſame ſhall be ſeized, condemned and exported in like Manner and Form, and under the like Penalties, as they are or ought to have been before the paſſing the ſaid Act.

3 & 4 Annæ, c. 13.

Acts to be in force.

III. And whereas great Trouble has been occaſioned to Shopkeepers and others, by common Informers, who are Perſons of mean Reputation; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That only ſuch Perſon or Perſons who is or are Officer or Officers belonging to the Cuſtoms, Claimers of ſeized Alamodes to give Security only to pay Coſts if nonſuited, &c.

33 Pieces of Foreign Luſtrings condemned, &c. may be ſold in England.
3 & 4 Annæ, c. 13.
Proviſo.

V. And whereas ſince the making the ſaid Act of Prohibition of Trade and Commerce with France, Thirty three Pieces of Foreign Luſtrings have been ſeized and condemned, being imported contrary to the ſaid Act, and ſold to Mr. David Martin, Merchant, to be uſed in England, and have not been ſealed and marked with the Cuſtom-houſe Seal and Mark; it is hereby further enacted, That the ſaid Thirty three Pieces of Foreign Luſtrings may be uſed in England, and that the ſame ſhall not be ſeized or forfeited; provided that the Poſſeſſors thereof reſpectively do on or before the Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeven, bring the ſaid Thirty three Pieces of Luſtrings, or ſuch Part thereof as remain undiſpoſed of, to be ſealed and marked at the Cuſtom-houſe with the Seal and Mark uſed for ſealing Alamodes and Luſtrings imported, and Oath being made, That ſuch Silks are the ſame individual Thirty three Pieces of Silks, or Part thereof, ſo ſold at the Cuſtom-houſe, and the Commiſſioners of Her Majeſty's Cuſtoms are hereby impowered and required (ſuch Oath being made) to cauſe the ſaid Silks to be ſealed and marked accordingly; any Law to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

CAP. XXX.

An Act for the better ſecuring Her Majeſty's Purchaſe of Cotton Houſe in Weſtminſter.

WHEREAS Sir John Cotton, late of Weſtminſter in the County of Middleſex, Baronet, was in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third, of glorious Memory, ſeized for the Term of his Life, with Remainder to John Cotton the Grandſon, (now Sir John Cotton Baronet) and the Heirs Male of his Body, with other Remainders, of and in the Capital Meſſuage called Cotton Houſe, and the Gardens and Buildings uſed and enjoyed with the ſame, being in the Pariſh of St. Margaret's Weſtminſter, in the County of Middleſex; and being ſo ſeized, in the ſaid Twelfth Year of the Reign of the ſaid late King WILLIAM, at the Requeſt of the ſaid Sir John Cotton the Grandfather, in the Abſence of the ſaid Sir John Cotton the Grandſon beyond the Seas, an Act of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the better ſettling and preſerving the Library kept in the Houſe at Weſtminſter, called Cotton Houſe, in the Name and Family of the Cottons, for the Benefit of the Publick, was made, thereby reciting, That Sir Robert Cotton, late of Connington in the County of Huntington Baronet, did, at his own great Charge and Expence, and by the Aſſiſtance of the moſt learned Antiquaries of his Time, collect and purchaſe the moſt uſeful Manuſcripts, written Books, Papers, Parchments, Records, and other Memorials, in moſt Languages, of great Uſe and Service for the Knowledge and Preſervation of our Conſtitution both in Church and State; which Manuſcripts and other Writings were procured, as well from Parts beyond the Seas, as from ſeveral private Collectors of ſuch Antiquities within this Realm, and are generally eſteemed the beſt Collection of its Kind now any where extant; and that the ſaid Library had been preſerved and very much augmented by the late Sir Thomas Cotton, Son of the ſaid Sir Robert, and by the ſaid Sir John Cotton, and was lodged in the ſaid Sir John's ancient Manſion Houſe at Weſtminſter; and that the ſaid Sir John, in purſuance of the Deſires and Intentions of his ſaid Father and Grandfather, was content and willing that the ſaid Manſion Houſe and Library ſhould continue in his Family and Name, and not be ſold or otherwiſe diſpoſed or imbezilled, and that the ſaid Library ſhould be kept and preſerved by the Name of the Cottonian Library, for publick Uſe and Advantage, it is enacted, That from and after the Death of the ſaid Sir John Cotton the Grandfather, the ſaid Manſion Houſe, with the Gardens and all other Appurtenances, and alſo all the ſaid Library or Collection of Manuſcripts, written Books, Papers, Parchments, Records, and other Memorials mentioned and named in a Schedule then and now remaining in the ſaid Library, together with all Coins, Medals, and other Rarities and Curioſities in the ſaid Library then and now contained, be ſettled, limited, and veſted in the Truſtees therein after named, to have, hold, and enjoy, to them and their Succeſſors for ever, to the Uſes, Intents, and Purpoſes therein mentioned (that is to ſay) as for the ſaid Houſe, Gardens, and Appurtenances, other than the Room where the ſaid Library then was, or then after might be lodged, and a convenient Way, Paſſage, and Reſort to the ſame, at the Will and Diſcretion of the Heirs of the Family, and the Library therein after-mentioned, to the only proper Uſe and Behoof of the ſaid now Sir John Cotton the Grandſon and Heir of the late Sir John Cotton, and after his Deceaſe, to the firſt and every the Son and Sons of his Body to be begotten, and the Heirs Male of the Body of ſuch Son or Sons iſſuing ſucceſſively, with other Remainders as therein are particularly mentioned, Remainder to the right Heirs of the ſaid Sir John Cotton (now living) Grandſon and Heir of the ſaid late Sir John Cotton, for ever; and as for and concerning the ſaid Library and Room wherein the ſame then was, or ſhould be contained, together with a convenient Paſſage for reſorting thereunto, upon this Truſt and Confidence, that the ſaid Truſtees and their Succeſſors ſhould and would, from time to time, and at all Times thereafter, as Occaſion ſhould require, inſpect, conſult, and take care of the ſaid Library, and other Particulars above-mentioned, and alſo make and appoint ſuch Orders and Rules as they ſhould think proper for the reading and uſing the ſame, and for their better Preſervation; and to the Intent or Purpoſe that the ſaid Truſtees, or the major Part of them, ſhould nominate and appoint a good and ſufficient Perſon, well read in Antiquities and Records, to have the immediate Care and Cuſtody of the ſaid Library. And it is thereby further enacted, That the ſaid Houſe, with the Appurtenances, and the Library, and other Particulars aforeſaid, ſhould never be ſubject or liable to any Judgments, Statutes, Recognizances, or any other Incumbrances, nor ſhould ever be ſold or aliened, forfeited, or forfeitable, upon any Account or Pretence whatſoever; and further that the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper for the time being, the Honourable Robert Harley Eſquire, then Speaker of the Houſe of Commons, the Honourable the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons for the time being, the Lord Chief Juſtice of the King's Bench for the time being, Sir Robert Cotton of Hatley St. George in the County of Cambridge Knight, Philip Cotton of Connington in the ſaid County Eſquire, Robert Cotton of Giddin in the County of Huntington Eſquire, and William Hanbury, of the Inner Temple London Eſquire, ſhall be the Truſtees, to and for the Purpoſes aforeſaid; and in caſe of the Deceaſe of any of the aforeſaid laſt recited Four Perſons, the ſaid Sir John Cotton the Grandſon, or other Heir Male of the ſaid Family, who ſhould be in Poſſeſſion, or entitled to the Poſſeſſion of the Manſion Houſe, by virtue of the Limitations therein recited, ſhould nominate and appoint One or more fit Perſons to ſucceed him or them, and ſupply the Place of him or them ſo dying. And whereas ſince the making of the ſaid Act very little hath been done in purſuance thereof, to make the ſaid Library uſeful to the Publick, except what has been lately done at Her Majeſty's Charge, and there is no Way or Paſſage to it ſet out as the Act did direct, nor can there be any Paſſage to the ſame but through the beſt Rooms of the Houſe, which would render the Houſe wholly uſeleſs to the Family, ſo that the Library cannot be reſorted unto; nor have any Orders or Rules been appointed for reading or uſing the ſame, and thereby the Publick is wholly deprived of the Benefit and Advantage deſigned by the Act; and the Place wherein the Library was then contained, was a narrow little Room, damp, and improper for preſerving the Books and Papers; and the Condition thereof having been humbly repreſented to the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, Her Majeſty, to the Intent ſo great a Treaſure of Books and Manuſcripts, ſo generouſly given for the publick Service, might not remain any longer uſeleſs, and in Danger of periſhing for want of due Care; and that it may be in Her Majeſty's Power to make this moſt valuable Collection uſeful to Her own Subjects, and to all learned Strangers, did give Directions for treating with the ſaid Sir John Cotton for the Purchaſe of the ſaid Cotton Houſe and Gardens, and an Agreement has been made for the purchaſing the Inheritance thereof, for the Sum of Four thouſand five hundred Pounds, which Her Majeſty hath directed to be paid on the inveſting the Inheritance of the Premiſſes in Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, which cannot be done but by Act of Parliament, the ſaid recited Act having directed it may not be ſold or aliened: May it therefore pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty, at the humble Suit and Petition of the ſaid Sir John Cotton the Grandſon, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's moſt

CAP. XXXI.

An Act for the Encouraging the Diſcovery and Apprehending of Houſe-breakers.

I. WHEREAS the Crimes of Burglary and breaking open Houſes in a felonious Manner, are of late Years become more frequent than formerly, to the great Diſquiet, Terror, and Impoveriſhing of many of Your Majeſty's good Subjects; which Crimes might be, in great Meaſure, prevented, if due Encouragement be given to ſuch as ſhall vigorouſly endeavour the Diſcovery and Apprehending of ſuch Malefactors, and ſome ſevere Puniſhment inflicted on ſuch as ſhall receive or buy ſtolen Goods, and harbour and protect the ſaid Offenders: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeven, all and every Perſon and Perſons who ſhall apprehend and take any Perſon or Perſons guilty of Burglary, or the felonious Breaking and Entring of any Houſe in the Day Time, and proſecute him, her, or them ſo apprehended and taken, until he, ſhe, or they be convicted of ſuch Burglary or Felony, ſhall have and receive, over and above the Rewards given by One Act of Parliament made at Weſtminſter, in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of the Reign of his late Majeſty King WILLIAM of glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for the better Apprehending, Preventing, and Puniſhing of Felons that commit Burglary, Houſe-breaking, or Robbery in Shops, Warehouſes, Coach-houſes, or Stables, or that ſteal Horſes, the Sum of Forty Pounds within One Month after ſuch Conviction, to be paid by the Sheriff or Sheriffs of the County where ſuch Felony or Burglary ſhall be made and done, without any Fee for the ſame, to the Perſon or Perſons ſo taking, apprehending, and proſecuting the ſaid Offenders, he and they rendring a Certificate to the ſaid Sheriff or Sheriffs, under the Hand or Hands of the Judges or Juſtices before whom ſuch Felon ſhall be convicted for ſuch Burglary or Felony, certifying the Conviction of ſuch Felon for the ſaid Offence or Offences, and in what Pariſh the ſame was committed, and alſo that ſuch Felon or Felons was or were taken by the Perſon or Perſons claiming the ſaid Reward; and in caſe any Diſpute ſhall happen to ariſe between the Perſons ſo apprehending any the ſaid Felons, touching their Right and Title to the ſaid Reward, That then the ſaid Judge or Juſtices ſo reſpectively certifying as aforeſaid, ſhall in and by their ſaid Certificate direct and appoint the ſaid Reward to be paid to and amongſt the Parties claiming the ſame, in ſuch Share and Proportions as to the ſaid Judge or Juſtices ſhall ſeem juſt and reaſonable; and if it ſhall happen that any ſuch Sheriff or Sheriffs ſhall die or be removed before the Expiration of One Month after ſuch Conviction, and demand made of the ſaid Reward (not being paid as aforeſaid) that then the next ſucceeding Sheriff or Sheriffs ſhall pay the ſame within One Month after Demand, and Certificate brought as aforeſaid; and if Default of Payment of the ſaid Sum or Sums of Money ſhall happen to be made by any Sheriff or Sheriffs, ſuch Sheriff or Sheriffs ſo making Default ſhall forfeit to the Perſon or Perſons to whom ſuch Money is due as aforeſaid, double the Sum or Sums of Money he or they ought to have paid, to be recovered by him or them, or his or their Executors or Adminiſtrators, in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein but One Imparlance, and no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, with Treble Coſts of Suit, by him or them expended in the Recovery of the ſame.

Apprehenders of Burglars &c. to have 40*l.* over and above the Rewards by 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 23.

payable by Sheriff.

Juſtices in caſe of Diſpute to direct in their Certificate how Reward ſhall be paid.

II. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any Watchman, or any other Perſon or Perſons ſhall happen to be killed by any ſuch Burglar or Houſe-breaker, endeavouring to apprehend, or in making Purſuit after him or them, that then the Executors or Adminiſtrators, or ſuch Perſon or Perſons to whom the Right of Adminiſtration of the Perſonal Eſtate of ſuch Perſon ſo killed ſhall belong, upon Certificate delivered under the Hands and Seals of the Judge or Juſtices of Aſſize of the County where the Fact was committed, or the Two next Juſtices of the Peace, of ſuch Perſon or Perſons being ſo killed, which Certificate the ſaid Judge or Juſtices, upon ſufficient Proof before them made, are immediately required to give without Fee or Reward, ſhall receive the Sum of Forty Pounds from the Sheriff or Sheriffs of the County where the ſaid Fact was done and committed; and upon Failure of Payment thereof by the ſaid Sheriff or Sheriffs, double the Sum of Forty Pounds to be recovered againſt them, with Treble Coſts of Suit, in Manner and Form as aforeſaid.

Watchman or other kill'd in Purſuit of Houſe-breaker, his Executor, &c. entitled to the 40*l.*

by 3 Geo. 1. c. 15. ſ. 4. Sheriffs may apply to the Treaſury without charging this Money in their Accounts.

Sheriffs to deduct Monies ſo paid on their Accounts,

III. And it is hereby further enacted, That all Sheriffs, their Executors, and Adminiſtrators, upon producing ſuch reſpective Certificates, and the Receipts for the Money paid by them, in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be allowed, and are hereby impowered to deduct, upon their Accounts, all Monies, other than double the Sum and Sums of Money, and Treble Coſts of Suit, which they ſhall diſburſe as aforeſaid; and that if upon Account of any Sheriff or Sheriffs, there ſhall not be Money ſufficient in the Hands of ſuch Sheriff or Sheriffs to reimburſe him or them ſuch Monies paid by him or them by virtue of this Act, that then the Sheriff or Sheriffs having ſo paid the ſaid Monies, ſhall have the ſame repaid by the Lord Treaſurer, or Commiſſioners of Her Majeſty's Treaſury for the time being, out of the Revenue of the Crown, upon Certificate from the Clerk of the Pipe to that Effect.

and be repaid by Lord Treaſurer.

Felon, &c. diſcovering Two or more Felons, ſhall on Conviction be entitled to Reward,

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons, being out of Priſon, ſhall from and after the ſaid Tenth Day of May commit any Burglary or Felony as aforeſaid, and afterwards diſcover Two or more Perſons who already have, or hereafter ſhall commit any ſuch Burglaries or Felonies, ſo as Two or more of the Perſons diſcovered ſhall be convicted of ſuch Burglary or Felony, any ſuch Diſcoverer ſhall himſelf have the like Reward and Allowance of Forty Pounds hereby promiſed to be paid to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall apprehend and convict Houſe-breakers, and all other Advantages given to ſuch Taker and Proſecutor, and ſhall alſo be himſelf entitled to the gracious Pardon of Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, for all Burglaries, Robberies, and Felonies (except Murder and Treaſon) by him committed at any Time or Times before ſuch Diſcovery made, which Pardon ſhall be likewiſe a good Bar to any Appeal brought for ſuch Burglary, Robbery or Felony.

Buyers or Receivers of ſtolen Goods, &c. made Acceſſaries, &c.

V. And foraſmuch as the ſaid Felons are much encouraged to commit ſuch Burglaries and Felonies, becauſe a great Number of Perſons make it a Trade to receive and buy of the ſaid Felons the Goods ſo by them feloniouſly taken, and alſo do make it their Buſineſs to harbour and conceal the ſaid Offenders after the ſaid Facts, knowing the ſaid Felonies and Burglaries to have been by them committed; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall receive or buy any Goods or Chattels that ſhall be feloniouſly taken or ſtolen from any other Perſon, knowing the ſame to be ſtolen, or ſhall receive, harbour, or conceal any Burglars, Felons, or Thieves, knowing them to be ſo, ſhall be taken and received as Acceſſary or Acceſſaries to the ſaid Felony or Felonies; and being of either of the ſaid Offences legally convicted, by the Teſtimony of One or more credible Witneſſes, ſhall ſuffer and incur the Pains of Death as a Felon convict.

If principal Felon cannot be taken, Acceſſary to be tried as for a Miſdemeanor.

VI. Provided always, That if any ſuch principal Felon cannot be taken, ſo as to be proſecuted and convicted for any ſuch Offence, yet nevertheleſs it ſhall and may be lawful to proſecute and puniſh every ſuch Perſon and Perſons buying or receiving any Goods ſtolen, by any ſuch principal Felon, knowing the ſame to be ſtolen, as for a Miſdemeanor, to be puniſhed by Fine and Impriſonment, or other ſuch corporal Puniſhment as the Court ſhall think fit to inflict, although the principal Felon be not before convict of the ſaid Felony, which ſhall exempt the Offender from being puniſhed as Acceſſary, if ſuch principal Felon ſhall be afterwards taken and convicted.

Judges, &c. to ſettle the Right and Shares of Perſons to the Certificate, &c.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Judge or Juſtices (before whom ſuch Felons and Houſe-breakers ſhall be convicted, as aforeſaid) ſhall determine and ſettle the Right, Rights, and Shares of ſuch reſpective Perſons, who by virtue of this Act ſhall be entitled to the Certificate herein directed to be given, and ſhall alſo (being thereunto required) make out and deliver, or cauſe to be made out and delivered the ſaid Certificate without Fee or Reward to ſuch Perſon or Perſons entitled thereunto, before the End of ſuch Aſſizes or Seſſions wherein ſuch Conviction, as aforeſaid, ſhall be had.

No Sheriff of London or Middleſex to take of his Under Sheriff any Gratuity for his Place of Under-ſheriff. Nor oblige him to be at any Expence, &c. Exception.

VIII. And whereas the Offences mentioned in this Act are generally committed in London and Middleſex, and the Rewards hereby granted being to be paid by the Under-ſheriffs of the ſaid Counties, by reaſon whereof they will be obliged to diſburſe great Sums of Money; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Sheriff of London and Middleſex, ſhall accept, demand, take, or receive of his or their Under-ſheriff, directly or indirectly, either by himſelf, or any Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for him or them, any Sum or Sums of Money, Gratuity, or Preſent whatſoever, for the Execution of the Place of Under-ſheriff; nor in any Manner oblige his or their Under-ſheriff by Covenant, Promiſe, or otherwiſe to be at any Expence or Charge in Relation to the ſaid Place of Under-ſheriff, which ought and hath been uſually paid and diſburſed by the High-ſheriff; except the Rewards given by this or any other Act for the apprehending Highwaymen, Clippers, Coiners, and Houſe-breakers, and the Fees of paſſing ſuch High-ſheriffs Accounts in the Exchequer, and ſuch other Diſburſements as hath been heretofore cuſtomarily ſuſtained by the Under-ſheriff.

11 & 12 W. 3. c. 18.

1 Annæ, ſtat. 2. c. 13.

I. WHEREAS an Act of Parliament made in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the late King William, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Puniſhment of Vagrants, and ſending them whither by Law they ought to be ſent, was continued by One other Act made in the Firſt Year of Her preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for continuing former Acts for the exporting Leather, and for the Eaſe of Jurors, and for making more effectual an Act relating to Vagrants, for the Space of Three Years, from the Expiration of the ſaid firſt Act made in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of King William, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſions of Parliament, and no longer: And whereas the ſaid Acts have been found of good Uſe for leſſening the Charge, and preventing the Abuſes and Frauds in conveying of Vagrants, be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame; That the ſaid ſeveral Acts made in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of King William, and in the Firſt Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, and every Article, Clauſe, Matter, and Thing in them, and each of them contained, relating to Vagrants, ſhall from How Allowances and Expences in paſſing of Vagrants ſhall be raiſed. Altered by 17 Geo. 2. c. 5. §. 16, &c.

II. And for the better raiſing of what Monies ſhall be found neceſſary to ſatisfy the Allowances made to Conſtables, and others, for their Loſs of Time, and Expences in paſſing of Vagrants, in purſuance of the Acts before-mentioned, in as much as the Methods already provided for raiſing the ſame, have in many Places been found impracticable; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where the Gaol and Marſhalſea Money ſhall not be ſufficient to ſatiſfy and pay the ſaid Allowances, the Juſtices of Peace within the ſeveral Limits of their Commiſſions, ſhall in ſuch Caſe, at any Time or Times hereafter, have full Power and Authority at their General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, to aſſeſs upon every Town, Pariſh, or Place within their reſpective Commiſſions, ſuch Sum and Sums of Money, as they in their Diſcretion ſhall think reaſonable for Satiſfaction of the Allowances made to Conſtables, and others, for their Loſs of Time, and Expences in paſſing of Vagrants, and that the Money ſo aſſeſſed ſhall be levied and collected according to the Rules and Methods preſcribed by an Act of Parliament now in Force, for the levying and collecting of Money for the Repair of County Bridges; and that the Monies ſo levied and collected ſhall be diſpoſed of in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Juſtices, by their Order at ſuch Seſſions, ſhall in that Behalf direct and appoint.

Treaſurers to obey Juſtices Orders.

III. And be it further enacted, That where there are Two or more Treaſurers for One and the ſame County, Riding, Liberty, or Diviſion, the Treaſurers thereof ſhall be and are hereby obliged to give Obedience to ſuch Order or Orders as ſhall be made by the Juſtices of the Peace, in purſuance or by Virtue of this Act, at their Firſt General Quarter Seſſions, to be held quarterly for every County, Riding, Liberty, or Diviſion, for the Diſcharge of all ſuch Sums as ſhall ariſe by or from the Conveyance of Vagrants through every ſuch County, Riding, Liberty or Diviſion: Provided, That all ſuch Charges be levied according to the cuſtomary Rate of Gaol or Bridge Money; and that no ſuch Order or Orders ſhall take Place or be effectual, till ſuch Time as the Treaſurer or Treaſurers to whom ſuch Order or Orders ſhall come, have Money in their Hands ſufficient for the Payment thereof.

If they have Money in their Hands.

Perſons aggrieved may appeal to the Seſſions.

IV. Ports Coaſtwiſe, as aforeſaid: And whereas there has been ſome Doubt in Relation to the Allowance for the ordinary Waſte of Salt, where the ſaid Salt has been ſhipped to be carried to a Member of the ſame Port, though at a conſiderable Diſtance from the ſame; be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all Perſons that ſhall (from and after the Firſt Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeven) ſhip Salt to be carried Coaſtwiſe by Cocket or Tranſire, Twenty Miles by Sea or more, or from the Port of Great Yarmouth in the County of Norfolk to Loweſtoff, or Southwold Bay in the County of Suffolk, although unto a Member or Creek of the Port from whence it was firſt ſhipped off, ſhall have an Allowance after the Rate of Three Buſhels for every Forty Buſhels of Engliſh White Salt, and after the Rate of One Buſhel and an Half for every Forty Buſhels of Engliſh Rock Salt ſo ſhipped to be carried Coaſtwiſe, and proportionably for a greater or leſſer Quantity, in Conſideration of the ordinary Waſte in the Carriage thereof, the Duties having been firſt paid, or ſecured to be paid, according to former Laws; which Allowance ſhall be but once made for the ſame Salt, although ſuch Salt ſhall be carried Coaſtwiſe from ſeveral Ports as aforeſaid, or Members or Creeks of Ports.

So help me GOD.

I A. B. do ſwear, That I do from my Heart abhor, deteſt, and abjure, as impious and heretical, that damnable Doctrine and Poſition, That Princes excommunicated or deprived by the Pope, or any Authority of the See of Rome, may be depoſed or murdered by their Subjects, or any other whatſoever. And I do declare, That no Foreign Prince, Perſon, Prelate, State, or Potentate, hath or ought to have any Juriſdiction, Power, Superiority, Pre-eminence or Authority, Eccleſiaſtical or Spiritual, within this Realm.

So help me GOD.

And ſhall alſo make, repeat, and ſubſcribe the Declaration following, videlicet:

I A. B. do ſolemnly and ſincerely, in the Preſence of God, profeſs, teſtify, and declare, That I do believe that in the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper there is not any Tranſubſtantiation of the Elements of Bread and Wine into the Body and Blood of Chriſt, at or after the Conſecration thereof by any Perſon whatſoever; and that the Invocation or Adoration of the Virgin Mary, or any other Saint, and the Sacrifice of the Maſs, as they are now uſed in the Church of Rome, are ſuperſtitious and idolatrous. And ſubſcribe the Declaration.

And alſo take and ſubſcribe the Oath following, videlicet:

I A. B. do truly and ſincerely acknowledge, profeſs, teſtify, and declare in my Conſcience, before God and the World, That our Sovereign Lady Queen Anne is lawful and rightful Queen of this Realm, and of all other Her Majeſty's Dominions and Countries thereunto belonging. And I do ſolemnly and ſincerely declare, That I do believe in my Conſcience, the Perſon pretended to be Prince of Wales, during the Life of the late King James, and ſince his Deceaſe pretending to be, and taking upon himſelf the Stile and Title of King of England, by the Name of James the Third, or of Scotland by the Name of James the Eighth, or the Stile and Title of King of Great Britain, hath not any Right or Title whatſoever to the Crown of this Realm, or any other the Dominions thereunto belonging: And I do renounce, refuſe, and abjure any Allegiance or Obedience to him. And I do ſwear, That I will bear Faith and true Allegiance to Her Majeſty Queen Anne, and Her will defend to the utmoſt of my Power againſt all traiterous Conſpiracies and Attempts whatſoever which ſhall be made againſt Her Perſon, Crown, or Dignity. And I will do my utmoſt Endeavour to diſcloſe and make known to Her Majeſty and Her Succeſſors all Treaſons and traiterous Conſpiracies, which I ſhall know to be againſt Her or any of them. And I do faithfully promiſe, to the utmoſt of my Power, to ſupport, maintain, and defend the Succeſſion of the Crown againſt him the ſaid James, and all other Perſons whatſoever, as the ſame is and ſtands ſettled by an Act, intituled, An Act declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and ſettling the Succeſſion of the Crown to Her preſent Majeſty, and the Heirs of Her Body, being Proteſtants; and as the ſame by One other Act, intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better ſecuring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, is and ſtands ſettled and entailed after the Deceaſe of Her Majeſty, and for Default of Iſſue of Her Majeſty, to the Princeſs Sophia, Electreſs and Dutcheſs Dowager of Hannover, and the Heirs of Her Body, being Proteſtants. And all theſe Things I do plainly and ſincerely acknowledge and ſwear, according to theſe expreſs Words by me ſpoken, and according to the plain and common Senſe and Underſtanding of the ſame Words, without any Equivocation, mental Evaſion, or ſecret Reſervation whatſoever. And I do make this Recognition, Acknowledgment, Abjuration, Renunciation and Promiſe, heartily, willingly, and truly, upon the true Faith of a Chriſtian.

So help me GOD.

and in Regard that after the Union, Scotland becoming liable to the ſame Cuſtoms and Duties of Exciſes upon all exciſeable Liquors as in England, as well on that Account as upon the Account of the Encreaſe of Trade and People, the ſaid Revenues will much improve beyond the Values mentioned in the ſaid Article, of which no Eſtimate could be made, it was agreed, That after the Union there ſhould be kept an Account of the ſaid Duties ariſing in Scotland, to the end it might appear what ought to be anſwered to Scotland, as an Equivalent for ſuch Proportion of the ſaid Encreaſe as ſhould be applicable to the Payment of the Debts of England; and for the further and more effectual anſwering the ſeveral Ends therein after mentioned, it was agreed, That from and after the Union, the aforeſaid whole Encreaſe of the Revenues of Cuſtoms and Exciſes in Scotland therein expreſſed, ſhould go and be applied for the Term of Seven Years to the Uſes therein ſet down; and that upon the ſaid Account there ſhould be anſwered to Scotland annually, from the End of Seven Years after the Union, an Equivalent, in Proportion to ſuch Part of the ſaid Encreaſe as ſhall be applicable to the ſaid Debts of England; and generally that an Equivalent ſhould be anſwered to Scotland for ſuch Parts of the Debts of England as Scotland might thereafter become liable to pay, by Reaſon of the Union, other than ſuch as are in the ſaid Article expreſſed; and as for the Uſes to which the ſaid Sum of Three hundred ninety eight thouſand and eighty five Pounds Ten Shillings, and other Monies, which are to be anſwered or allowed to Scotland, as aforeſaid, are to be applied, it was thereby agreed, That in the firſt Place, the Loſſes which private Perſons might ſuſtain by reducing the Coin of Scotland to the Standard and Value of the Coin of England, might be made good; in the next Place, That the Capital Stock or Fund of the African and Indian Company of Scotland advanced, together with the Intereſt of the ſaid Capital Stock after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, from the reſpective Times of Payment thereof, ſhould be paid; and as to the Overplus of the ſaid Sum of Three hundred ninety eight thouſand and eighty five Pounds Ten Shillings, and alſo the whole Increaſe of the ſaid Revenue of Cuſtoms and Exciſe, above the then Values ariſing during the Term of Seven Years, with the Equivalent which ſhould become due upon Improvement thereof, and alſo all other Sums, which, according to the aforeſaid Agreement, ſhould become payable to Scotland by Way of Equivalent, it was agreed, That the ſame ſhould be applied in Manner following, viz. that all the publick Debts of the Kingdom of Scotland, as ſhould be adjuſted by the then Parliament of Scotland, ſhould be paid; and that Two thouſand Pounds per Annum, for the Space of Seven Years, ſhould be applied towards encouraging the Manufacture of Courſe Wooll, within thoſe Shires which produce the Wooll; and afterwards the ſame ſhould be wholly applied for encouraging the Fiſheries, and ſuch other Manufactures and Improvements in Scotland, as may moſt conduce to the general Good of the united Kingdom: And whereas for preventing all Miſtakes or Abuſes which might hinder the ready Application of the aforeſaid Money to the Proprietors and others concerned in the Stock of the African and Indian Company of Scotland, conform to the ſaid Article, there was an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of the laſt Parliament of Scotland, intituled, Act concerning the Payment of the Sums out of the Equivalent to the African Company, wherein it is, amongſt other Things, enacted, That the Directors of the ſaid African and Indian Company of Scotland, ſhould make up Accounts of the Sums advanced by the Proprietors of the ſaid Company, and Debts due by the ſaid Company, the whole, with Intereſt due thereon, not exceeding Two hundred thirty two thouſand eight hundred and eighty four Pounds Five Shillings, and Two Third Parts of a Penny Sterling, on the Firſt Day of May then next, and now paſt, and appointed the Proprietors for their reſpective Shares to be paid, and to have Execution as therein alſo is expreſſed; and in like Manner by another Act of the ſaid Parliament of Scotland, intituled, Act concerning the publick Debts, the Payments to be made on Account of the publick Debts of Scotland, are adjuſted as in the ſaid Fifteenth Article, and Two Acts above-mentioned, is more amply contained: And whereas the ſaid Sum of Three hundred ninety eight thouſand and eighty five Pounds Ten Shillings, has been paid for and on the Part of England, to the Commiſſioners of the Equivalent in Scotland, purſuant to the aforeſaid Articles, and conſiderable Sums have by them been iſſued out, conform to the ſame, and the above recited Acts of the Parliament of Scotland; but by Experience it has been found, that ſome further Direction is yet neceſſary for the better Application of what remains of the ſaid Sum yet unapplied, and all other Sums which are or may become due by Virtue of the Agreements aforeſaid, and for the more effectual attaining the Ends mentioned in the ſaid Article of the Treaty and Acts above recited; therefore Her Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament aſſembled, do humbled beſeech Her Majeſty, that it may be enacted, &c.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of Her preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for diſcharging ſmall Livings from their Firſt-fruits and Tenths, and all Arrears thereof, it is provided, That the ſaid Act, or any Thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to diſcharge any Benefices with Cure of Souls, the Tenths whereof were granted away by any of Her Majeſty's Predeceſſors to any Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, in Perpetuity, before the Third Day of November in the Third Year of Her Majeſty's Reign; which Clauſe was intended only to ſave the Rights of ſuch Perſons who had Grants of Tenths from the Crown before the ſaid Third Day of November, and not otherwiſe: But foraſmuch as the Firſt-fruits of the aforeſaid Benefices with Cure of Souls, the Tenths whereof were ſo granted, as aforeſaid, were notwithſtanding the ſaid Grants, reſerved to the Crown, and are now granted by Her Majeſty to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen ANNE for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy, and their Succeſſors: And foraſmuch as the diſcharging of the Firſt-fruits and Arrears thereof of ſmall Livings, the Tenths of which are not veſted in the ſaid Governors, will be a preſent proper Augmentation of the ſame; be it therefore enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all Eccleſiaſtical Benefices with Cure of Souls, not exceeding the clear yearly Value of Fifty Pounds by the improved Valuations of the ſame, the Tenths whereof are not veſted in the Corporation of the ſaid Governors, and the Incumbents thereof for the time being, and every of them, their reſpective Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors, and Sureties, ſhall be free and clearly diſcharged and acquitted for ever of and from the ſaid Firſt-fruits, and of and from all Arrears of the ſame; any thing in the aforeſaid Act to the contrary notwithſtanding: And the aſcertaining of the clear improved yearly Valuations of the ſaid Eccleſiaſtical Benefices with the Cure of Souls, hereby intended to be diſcharged from the Payment of Firſt-fruits, ſhall be by the ſame Perſons, and in the ſame Manner and Form, as for other Livings mentioned in the ſaid Act.

All Eccleſiaſtical Benefices not exceeding 50 l per Ann. &c.

Diſcharged for ever from Firſt-fruits, &c.

II. Provided nevertheleſs, That the Certificates by the proper Ordinaries into Her Majeſty's Court of Exchequer at Weſtminſter, of the yearly Valuation of ſuch Livings intended by this Act to be diſcharged from the Payment of Firſt-fruits, may be made at any Time before the Twenty fourth Day of December, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and eight; any thing herein to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Certificates of Valuation to be made before 24 Dec. 1708.

III. And whereas by the ſaid Act of Parliament made in the ſaid Fifth Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, the Time limited for certifying into the Court of Exchequer the Valuation of ſuch Livings intended by the ſaid Act to be diſcharged from the Payment of Firſt-fruits and Tenths, is found not ſufficient with Reſpect to ſome Dioceſes and Places; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch Certificates which ſhall be made into the ſaid Court of Exchequer, of the yearly Valuation of ſuch Livings intended to be diſcharged from the Payment of Firſt-fruits and Tenths by the ſaid Act of Parliament, at any Time before the ſaid Twenty fourth Day of December, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and eight, ſhall be as good and effectual for the Purpoſes by the ſaid Act intended, as if the ſame were made and certified on or before the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and eight; any thing in this or the ſaid Act to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Not made by 25 March, 1708. may be made by 24 Dec. enſuing.

IV. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall be taken and accepted in all Courts and Places whatſoever as a publick Act.

Act to be a Publick Act.

V. And whereas it has been uſual for the Kings and Queens of England, by their Letters of Privy Seal, to allow the Archbiſhops and Biſhops Four Years Time for the Payment of their Firſt-fruits to the Crown, by Way of Inſtallment, which ſince Her Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to give the Firſt-fruits and Tenths for the Maintenance of the poor Clergy, cannot now be done: And whereas the Firſt-fruits of Archbiſhopricks and Biſhopricks amount to near the full annual Value thereof, and the other Charges of coming into Archbiſhopricks and Biſhopricks are very great: And whereas Archbiſhops and Biſhops have not the Profits of their Biſhopricks from the Death of their Predeceſſors, as Rectors and Vicars have, but from the Time that ſuch Biſhopricks are conferred upon them: And whereas no Proviſion has been made for any Abatements of the Firſt-fruits of Archbiſhops or Biſhops, as there is for Rectors and Vicars, in caſe of Death or Removal, within the Times allowed for the Payment of ſuch Firſt-fruits; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Archbiſhop and Biſhop ſhall have Four Years allowed him, when he or they ſhall compound for the ſame, for the Payment of his Firſt-fruits, which ſhall commence from the Time of Reſtitution of his Temporalities; and that in every Year he ſhall pay One Fourth Part of the whole Sum: And if it ſhall pleaſe God he ſhall die, or be removed, before the full Term of Four Years ſhall be expired, he, his Heirs, Executors, or Adminiſtrators, ſhall be diſcharged of ſo much as did not become due or payable at or before the Time or Times of his Death or Removal, in like Manner as the Heirs, Executors, and Adminiſtrators of Rectors and Vicars are authorized to do.

Four Years allowed to Archbiſhops and Biſhops to pay their Firſt-fruits.

Proviſo in caſe of Death.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Deans, Archdeacons, Prebendaries, and other Dignitaries, ſhall compound for their reſpective Firſt-fruits, in ſuch Manner and Form as Rectors and Vicars have been accuſtomed to do; and in caſe of Death or Removal within the Time uſually allowed to Rectors and Vicars for Payment of their ſaid Firſt-fruits, they the ſaid Deans, Archdeacons, Prebendaries, and other Dignitaries, ſhall be in the like Condition, and have the ſame Benefit as is allowed to Rectors Deans, Archdeacons, &c. to compound for Firſt-fruits in ſame Manner, as Rectors, Vicars, &c.

MAY it pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty, whereas by or in purſuance of an Act of Parliament made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of their late Majeſties King William and Queen Mary, of glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majeſties ſeveral Rates and Duties upon Tonnage of Ships and Veſſels, and upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, for ſecuring certain Recompences and Advantages in the ſaid Act mentioned, to ſuch Perſons as ſhall voluntarily advance the Sum of Fifteen hundred thouſand Pounds, towards carrying on the War againſt France, the Corporation or Body Politick of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England was erected and eſtabliſhed with ſuch Capacities, Powers, Privileges, Benefits, and Advantages, and ſubject to ſuch Reſtrictions, and in ſuch Manner and Form as are therein mentioned; and in purſuance of the ſame Act the Sum of One Million two hundred thouſand Pounds was advanced and lent to their ſaid late Majeſties, for which there is now payable to the ſaid Governor and Company, and their Succeſſors, the yearly Sum of One hundred thouſand Pounds out of certain Rates and Duties of Exciſe, which were thereby granted to their ſaid late Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors; in which Act it was provided, That at any Time upon Twelve Months Notice, after the Firſt Day of Auguſt, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, upon Repayment by Parliament of the ſaid Sum of One million two hundred thouſand Pounds, and of all the Arrears of the ſaid yearly Sum of One hundred thouſand Pounds, then the ſaid One hundred thouſand Pounds per Annum, and the ſaid Corporation, ſhould abſolutely ceaſe and determine: And whereas by another Act made in the Eighth Year of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty King William the Third, intituled, An Act for making good the Deficiencies of ſeveral Funds therein mentioned, and for enlarging the Capital Stock of the Bank of England, and for raiſing the Publick Credit, the ſaid Corporation was enlarged and eſtabliſhed with divers other Powers, Privileges, Benefits, and Advantages, and ſubject to ſuch other Reſtrictions and Rules as are therein particularly expreſſed; in which Act laſt-mentioned it was provided and enacted, That at any Time upon Twelve Months Notice, after the Firſt Day of Auguſt, which ſhould be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and ten, and not before, and upon Repayment by Parliament of the ſaid Sum of One million two hundred thouſand Pounds, and of all Arrears of the ſaid One hundred thouſand Pounds per Annum, and alſo upon Payment of all the Principal and Intereſt Monies which ſhould be owing to the ſaid Governor and Company of the Bank of England, upon all ſuch Tallies, Exchequer Orders, or Parliamentary Funds, which the ſaid Governor and Company ſhould have remaining in their Hands, or be entitled to at the Time of ſuch Notice to be given, as aforeſaid, then, and in ſuch Caſe, and not till then, the ſaid One hundred thouſand Pounds per Annum, and alſo the ſaid Corporation, ſhould ceaſe and determine: And whereas by an Act made in the Fifth Year of Your Majeſty's Reign (intituled, An Act for continuing the Duties upon Houſes, to ſecure a yearly Fund for circulating Exchequer Bills, whereby a Sum not exceeding Fifteen hundred thouſand Pounds is intended to be raiſed for carrying on the War, and other Her Majeſty's Occaſions) ſeveral Duties upon Houſes therein mentioned or referred unto, are continued from the laſt Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ten, and from thenceforth made payable to Your Majeſty, Your Heirs and Succeſſors for ever, for the Purpoſes in that Act expreſſed, ſubject to the Proviſo or Condition of Redemption therein contained; and the Duties ſo continued, together with ſuch Remainder and Arrears of Houſe Money, as are therein mentioned, are thereby charged with the yearly Fund, after the Rate of Four Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, to be paid to the ſaid Governor and Company of the Bank of England, for circulating all ſuch Exchequer Bills as ſhould be iſſued by or in purſuance of that Act; and by the ſame Act a Power was given for making forth Exchequer Bills for any Sum not exceeding Fifteen hundred thouſand Pounds for Your Majeſty's Supply; and it was thereby enacted, that like Bills ſhould be made out quarterly for ſo much as ſhould be computed to be due and owing upon and for the ſaid Allowance of Four Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, until the Feaſt of St. Michael the Archangel, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ten incluſively, in the Manner therein mentioned; and it was thereby enacted, that the ſaid Governor and Company, after the ſaid Exchequer Bills, or any of them, ſhould be iſſued upon that Act, as aforeſaid, ſhould, from time to time, exchange all ſuch Exchequer Bills as they ſhould be required to exchange by any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever for ready Money; and that the ſaid Governor and Company, and their Succeſſors, ſhould continue and remain a Corporation until all the ſaid Exchequer Bills ſhould be redeemed and cancelled in the Manner in that Act mentioned; and in the ſame Act there is contained a Proviſo, that at any Time, upon One Year's Notice and Payment of the Principal Money to be due on the ſaid Exchequer Bills, and of ſo much as ſhould be due for the ſaid Allowance, after the Rate of Four Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, for circulating the ſaid Exchequer Bills, then, and not till then, the ſaid Exchequer Bills ſhould be cancelled and diſcharged, and the ſaid Allowance after the Rate of Four Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, ſhould ceaſe and determine; and ſo much of the ſaid Duties on Houſes as ſhould have been applied for the Payment of the ſaid Four Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, in caſe the ſame had continued, ſhould from thenceforth be underſtood to be redeemed by Parliament, and ſhould not be iſſued, paid, or applied to any Uſe or Purpoſe whatſoever but by Authority of Parliament; and it is alſo thereby enacted, that the ſaid Governor and Company might call in from their reſpective Members proportionably, any Sums of Money as they ſhould think neceſſary for the ſaid Circulation; and that until all the Exchequer Bills by that Act directed to be iſſued, ſhould be paid off, diſcharged, and cancelled, no more or other Bills of the like Nature ſhould be made out and iſſued at the Receipt of Her Majeſty's Exchequer, either with or without the Authority of Parliament, unleſs with the Conſent of the ſaid Governor and Company; and that nothing in that Act contained ſhould hinder the Redemption of the ſaid original Fund of One hundred thouſand Pounds per Annum, or of any other Funds granted or to be granted by Parliament, upon which the ſaid Governor and Company had or ſhould have lent any Monies, and which were redeemable by Parliament, but that the ſame might be redeemed from the ſaid Governor and Company, according to former Acts for that Purpoſe, without redeeming the ſaid Four Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum; nevertheleſs, without determining or diſſolving the Corporation of the ſaid Governor and Company, until the ſaid Four Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, ſhould be redeemed from them; as by the ſaid ſeveral Acts, Relation being thereunto reſpectively had, more at large may appear: And whereas the ſaid Governor and Company, for the better enabling themſelves to ſupply the publick Exigencies, did lately conſent to admit new Subſcriptions for doubling their then preſent Stock of Two millions two hundred and one thouſand one hundred ſeventy one Pounds Ten Shillings, at the Rate of One hundred and fifteen Pounds to be paid for every One hundred Pounds ſubſcribed; and upon a Commiſſion granted by Your Majeſty, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of February, in the Seventh Year of Your Reign, to Sir Thomas Abney, and others directed, grounded upon an Addreſs of the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament aſſembled, ſeveral Perſons have ſubſcribed ſeveral Sums, amounting to Two millions two hundred and one thouſand one hundred ſeventy one Pounds Ten Shillings, for doubling the ſaid Stock, as aforeſaid, and have paid down to the ſaid Governor and Company, at or before their reſpective Subſcriptions, One Fifth Part of the Sums by them reſpectively ſubſcribed, and are to pay the remaining Four Fifth Parts thereof, together with Fifteen Pounds per Centum more (being in all One hundred and fifteen Pounds for every One hundred Pounds ſubſcribed) in Manner hereafter mentioned; all which Subſcriptions are contained in Books of Vellum or Parchment for that Purpoſe, atteſted by Three or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners, and now remaining in the Cuſtody of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, whereof there are Two Duplicates made in Vellum or Parchment, atteſted by Seven or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners, and One of the ſaid Duplicates is delivered into the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt, and the other of them into the Office of the Clerk of the Pells in Your Majeſty's Exchequer, there to remain for ever: Now for the better purſuing the Ends and Intent of the ſaid Subſcribers in making ſuch Subſcriptions and Payment, as aforeſaid, it is hereby enacted, at the humble Suit of the ſaid Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That the ſeveral Sums ſubſcribed or written in the ſaid Books, amounting to the ſaid Sum of Two millions two hundred and one thouſand one hundred ſeventy one Pounds Ten Shillings, ſhall be added and united, and be judged and deemed to be added and united to the Stock of the ſaid Governor and Company, which before ſuch Addition conſiſted of the like Sum of Two millions two hundred and one thouſand one hundred ſeventy one Pounds Ten Shillings, as aforeſaid, ſo that the Capital Stock of the ſaid Governor and Company ſo increaſed, ſhall be and amount, and be deemed to amount in the Whole to the Sum of Four millions four hundred and two thouſand three hundred forty three Pounds; and that all and every the Perſon and Perſons, Natives and Foreigners, who have ſubſcribed or written any Sum or Sums of Money, or for whom any Sum or Sums of Money have been ſubſcribed or written in the ſaid Books of Subſcription, for or towards the making up the ſaid Sum of Two millions two hundred and one thouſand one hundred ſeventy one Pounds Ten Shillings, therein compleatly ſubſcribed, and who have paid to the ſaid Governor and Company One Fifth Part of each ſubſcribed Sum, as aforeſaid, and the Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns of ſuch Perſon and Perſons reſpectively, ſhall be, and be deemed and reputed to be Members of, united to, and incorporated with the ſaid Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and ſhall at all Times, together with the other Members of the ſaid Corporation and Body Politick, and their Succeſſors reſpectively, be, and be adjudged, conſtrued, reputed, accepted, and taken to be One Body Politick and Corporate, by the Name of The Governor and Company of the Bank of England.

New Subſcriptions for doubling the preſent Stock of the Bank.

New Subſcriptions to be added to the Capital Stock of the Bank.

Total Stock 4,402,343 l.

II. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Capital Stock of the ſaid Governor and Company, now amounting, as aforeſaid, to Four millions four hundred and two thouſand three hundred forty three Pounds, ſhall be aſſignable and transferrable in the ſame Manner as the original Capital Stock of the ſaid Governor and Company was aſſignable and transferrable before the making of this Act.

Books not to be alienable without Conſent of the Ordinary.

If any Book be loſt, a Juſtice of Peace may grant a Warrant to ſearch for it; and if found, it ſhall be reſtored to the Library.

X. And it is further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That none of the ſaid Books ſhall in any Caſe be alienable, nor any Book or Books that ſhall hereafter be given by any Benefactor or Benefactors ſhall be alienated, without the Conſent of the proper Ordinary, and then only when there is a Duplicate of ſuch Book or Books; and that in caſe any Book or Books be taken or otherwiſe loſt out of the ſaid Library, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Juſtice of Peace within the County, Riding, or Diviſion, to grant his Warrant to ſearch for the ſame, and in caſe the ſame be found, ſuch Book or Books ſo found ſhall immediately, by Order of ſuch Juſtice, be reſtored to the ſaid Library; any Law, Statute, or Uſage to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, holden in the Sixth Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better preventing Miſchiefs that happen by Fire, it was, amongſt other Things, enacted, That each and every Pariſh within the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and Weekly Bills of Mortality, ſhall from time to time, and at all Times, have and keep in good Order and Repair, in ſome known and publick Place within each Pariſh, a large Engine, and alſo a Hand Engine, to throw up Water for the extinguiſhing of Fires, and alſo provide, keep, and maintain one Leather Pipe and Socket of the ſame Size as the Plug or Fire Cock, to the Intent the Socket may be put into the Pipe to convey the Water clean, and without Loſs, or Help of the Bucket, into the Engine; and for as much as ſeveral of the Pariſhes within the ſaid City of London were, after the great Fire which happened in the Year One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and ſix, united together, or to each other, and for that ſome Doubt hath ariſen, whether each of the ſaid Pariſhes ſo united is not obliged to have and keep Two ſuch Engines; therefore for explaining the ſame, and avoiding of any Diſpute or Queſtion that may ariſe touching the Conſtruction thereof, be it declared and enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Pariſhes ſo united were intended to be, and ſhall (for the Purpoſes in the ſaid Act mentioned) be eſteemed and taken as One Pariſh only. 6 Annæ, c. 31. 11 Geo. 1. c. 28. The Pariſhes in London, united after the Fire, ſhall be taken as One Pariſh for the Purpoſes in the Act 6 Annæ, c. 31.

II. And whereas by the ſaid Act a Reward of Ten Shillings is to be paid to the Turn Cock belonging to any Water Work, whoſe Water ſhall be found on, or firſt come into the Main or Pipe where the firſt Plug ſhall be opened at any Fire; Thirty Shillings to the Firſt Engine Keeper which brings in a Pariſh Engine to help to extinguiſh any Fire; Twenty Shillings to the Keeper of the Second Pariſh Engine that ſhall be next brought to a Fire; and to the Third Ten Shillings; by the Churchwardens of each Pariſh where ſuch Fire ſhall happen; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Caſes where the ſaid Rewards are claimed, by Reaſon of any Fire happening within the ſaid City of London, or the Liberties thereof, the Churchwardens of the Pariſh where ſuch Fire ſhall happen, ſhall not pay the ſaid Rewards, or any of them, without the Approbation and Direction of the Alderman of the Ward wherein ſuch Pariſh is ſituate, or his Deputy, or Two of the Common Councilmen of the ſame Ward for the time being; and that the ſaid ſeveral Rewards ſhall likewiſe be paid and payable in like Proportion, and in the ſame Manner, to the Keeper of any other large Engine, (tho' not a Pariſh Engine) who ſhall bring in ſuch large Engine to help to extinguiſh any Fire, in good Order, and compleat. The Rewards to the Turn Cock and others, how to be paid.

III. Provided nevertheleſs, and it is further enacted, That in caſe the Veſtries of any of the ſaid united Pariſhes, or of any other Pariſhes within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, ſhall at any Time conceive it neceſſary for the ſaid Pariſh, in Reſpect of the Largeneſs thereof, to have more than One Great Engine or Hand Engines, it ſhall and may be lawful for them to provide more great Engine or Engines, Hand Engine or Hand Engines, at the Charge of the Pariſh, by an Aſſeſſment to be made, as by the ſaid former and this preſent Act is preſcribed and provided; and that the ſame ſhall be under the like Regulations and Encouragements as the Engine or Engines reſpectively to be provided by the ſaid former Act were and are to be. The Veſtries may order more Engines than One to be kept in a Pariſh.

IV. And to the end the ſaid Act may be made more effectual for the Purpoſes the ſame was intended, it is further enacted, That there ſhall be left at the Houſe, upon which there is a Notice of a Fire Plug, a Key to open the Stop Cock, and alſo a Pipe for the Water to come thereout, to be made Uſe of as Occaſion ſhall require. A Key and Pipe to be left at the Houſe where there is Notice of a Fire Plug.

V. And whereas there is no Proviſion made for raiſing Monies to defray the neceſſary Charges of providing and maintaining the ſaid Engine or Engines, Stop Blocks and Fire Cocks, and Keys, and other Implements and Materials, and Payment of the Rewards or Gratuities directed by the ſaid Act; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Churchwardens, Overſeers of the Poor, and Inhabitants, in a Veſtry duly ſummoned, of the ſeveral Pariſhes within the Limits aforeſaid, ſhall and may, and they are hereby required from time to time (as often as there ſhall be Occaſion) to rate and aſſeſs ſuch competent Sum and Sums of Money as ſhall be needful and requiſite for the Ends aforeſaid, in like Manner as by Law they may do for the Maintenance and Relief of the Poor of their reſpective Pariſhes; which Rates being allowed and confirmed in like Manner as the Rates made for the Poor are or ought to be, ſhall be collected and levied in the ſame Manner as the Rates made for the Relief of the Poor by Law now may or ought to be collected and levied, ſubject nevertheleſs to the like Appeal as in caſe of Rates made for the Relief the Poor; and the ſaid Officers ſhall be accountable for the ſame in like Manner as by Law they are for the Money by them levied and collected for the Relief of the Poor. The Pariſh Officers, &c. may aſſeſs Rates for maintaining the Engines, &c. to be levied as Poor Rates, but ſubject to the like Appeal.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any Stop Blocks of Wood with Plugs, or any Fire Cocks, have been or ſhall hereafter be made and fixed upon any Mains and Pipes belonging to any Water Works by virtue of this or the ſaid former Act, the Owners of the ſaid Water Works ſhall afterwards remove, change, or alter the ſaid Mains or Pipes, then in every ſuch Caſe the Owners of the ſaid Mains or Pipes ſhall, at In caſe of Removal of Mains or Pipes, the like Stop Blocks ſhall be fixed.

their own proper Charges, place and fix the ſame or the like Stop Blocks, Plugs, and Fire Cocks upon ſuch new Main or Pipe ſo to be new laid, to be placed where the Churchwardens for the time being of the Pariſh where the ſame were placed, ſhall direct and appoint; and in ſuch Caſe of Removal, the Key and Pipe ſhall be removed to the Houſe upon which Notice ſhall be of ſuch Fire Plug.

The Clauſe in the Act 6 Annæ, c. 31. that Party Walls ſhould be wholly of Brick or Stone, ſhall not extend to Houſes on London Bridge.

VII. And whereas by the ſaid Act it was further enacted, That all and every Houſe and Houſes that ſhould be erected and built, either upon old or new Foundations, in any Place or Places in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, or other Pariſhes or Places comprized within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, ſhall have Party Walls between Houſe and Houſe wholly of Brick or Stone, and of Two Bricks thick at the leaſt in the Cellar and Ground Stories, and Thirteen Inches thick upwards from the Foundation quite through all the Stories of each Houſe, and Eighteen Inches above the Roof, and that no Mundillion or Corniſh of Timber or Wood under the Eaves, ſhould thereafter be made or ſuffered in any ſuch new Houſe or Houſes; but that all Front and Rear Walls of every Houſe and Houſes, ſhall be built of Brick or Stone, to be carried Two Foot and an Half high above the Garret Floor, and coped with Stone or Brick; be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid recited Clauſe was not intended, or ſhall be conſtrued, to extend to any Houſe or Houſes hereafter to be erected and built upon any Part of London Bridge, but that the ſame may be erected and built with Wood and Timber, as hath been always hitherto uſed; the ſaid recited Clauſe, or any other Clauſe in the ſaid Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

After May 1, 1709. all Houſes within the Bills of Mortality, (except on London Bridge, &c.) that ſhall be built on old or new Foundations, ſhall have Party Walls between Houſe and Houſe, except Door Caſes, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Firſt Day of May, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and nine, all and every Houſe and Houſes that ſhall be erected and built, either upon old or new Foundations, in any Place or Places in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, or other Pariſhes or Places comprized within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, (except Houſes on London Bridge, and on the River of Thames below Bridge) ſhall have Party Walls between Houſe and Houſe, wholly of Brick or Stone (except Door Caſes, Windows, Lentils, Breaſt Summers, Story Poſts, and Plates) of Two Bricks thick at the leaſt in the Cellar, and One Brick and an Half thick upwards to the Top of the Garret Floor, and all Gable Ends to be One Brick in Length, and Eighteen Inches above the Roof, and to have no Beams or Rafters lie or ſtand, or be in the Brick Works of the Gable Ends.

How the Party Walls ſhall be built.

IX. And whereas many Suits of Law have been brought about Differences in Party Walls, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Party Walls that ſhall hereafter be built, ſhall be built nine Inches on each Man's Ground, whether the old Party Wall be Brick, Stone, or Timber, and that the firſt Builders ſhall have Power to pull down the ſame, and build up the new Party Wall, as aforeſaid, and be paid by the Owner of the next Houſe after the Rate of Five Pounds per Rod as ſoon as he ſhall have built the ſaid Party Wall; and for all Houſes hereafter to be built that will not yield the Rent of Twenty Pounds per Annum more than the Ground Rent, to be left to the Diſcretion of the Builders: Provided that all Party Walls for the ſame be built with Brick.

For the pulling down of Party Walls, ſee 11 Geo. 1. c. 28. §. 1.

How Chimney Jambs, Backs, &c. ſhall be built.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Chimney Jambs and Backs that ſhall hereafter be erected or built, ſhall be Nine Inches thick from the Cellars to the Roof, and all Withs the Inſide of ſuch Chimnies, ſhall be Four Inches and an Half in Breadth, and all the Funnels plaiſtered or pargetted the Inſide from the Bottom to the Top, and that all Chimnies be turned or arched under the Hearths with Brick, (except upon a Ground Floor) and that no Timber ſhall lie nearer than Five Inches to any Chimney, Funnel, or Fire Place; and all Mantles between the Jambs arched over with Brick, and no Wood or Wainſcot ſhall be placed or affixed to the Front of any Jamb or Mantle of any Chimney, nearer than Five Inches from the Inſide of ſuch Jamb or Mantle; and that all Gable Ends called Nine Inches thick in Party Walls, be rendred on the ruffeſt Side; and that all Stoves and Boylers, Coppers, and Ovens that ſhall be hereafter ſet up with Brick or Stone, ſhall not be nearer than Nine Inches at the leaſt to the adjoining Houſe, and no Timber to lie nearer than Five Inches to any Fire Place or Flew.

Not above 10 Gallons of Turpentine, &c. ſhall be boiled or diſtilled at one Time in any Workhouſe contiguous to other Buildings (except in Houſes already built in Southwark, &c.)

XI. And whereas the diſtilling of Turpentine, and the drawing of Oil of Turpentine and Roſin by diſtilling of common Turpentine, and the boyling of the ſaid Oil and Turpentine together for making of common Varniſh, within the City of London, and the Liberties thereof, has often been, and may hereafter prove of the moſt dangerous Conſequence to the Neighbourhood where ſuch Trade or Practice has been uſed, by the frequent Fires that have and may happen thereby: For preventing whereof for the future, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and nine, it ſhall not be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons to diſtil or boil any Turpentine, nor draw any Oil of Turpentine and Roſin by diſtilling of common Turpentine nor boil the ſaid Oil and Turpentine together, above the Quantity of Ten Gallons at any one Time, of all or any the ſaid Commodities, within the ſaid City of London, and Liberties thereof, and the City of Weſtminſter, and Borough of Southwark, and the Liberties thereof, in any Workhouſe contiguous to any other Building, but ſhall ſtand diſtant from any other Building at leaſt Fifty Foot, except ſuch Houſes as are already built in Southwark, and are at preſent uſed for the ſaid Trade, and except the Still and Furnace built by Daniel Tombes at his Houſe at Holborn Bridge for the Diſtillation of Oil of Turpentine; upon Pain that every Perſon offending therein, ſhall, for every Offence, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, which Forfeitures ſhall and may be recovered, with Treble Coſts of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law ſhall be granted or allowed, nor any more than One Imparlance; One Moiety whereof ſhall be to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall inform and ſue for the ſame.

upon Pain of forfeiting 100 l. to be recovered with Treble Coſts;

One Moiety to the Queen, the other to him who will ſue, &c.

After June, 1709 no Brick or Stone Work in the Fronts, &c.

XII. And whereas frequent and great Damage happens to Houſes by Fire, as likewiſe conſtant Decay and Ruin, by ſetting Brick-work upon Timber, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Firſt Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and nine, no Brick or Stone-work in the Fronts, Party, or Partition Walls of any Houſe, Tenement, or other Building whatſoever, which ſhall be erected upon any new or old Foundation within the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, or their Liberties, ſhall be ſupported, depend, or any otherwiſe bear upon any Sort of Timber or Wood Work (excepting upon Piles and Planks where they are abſolutely neceſſary for Foundations in marſhy and unſound Ground, and excepting likewiſe all Houſes upon London Bridge, and on the River of Thames below Bridge) upon Pain that every Perſon ſo offending ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, ſuffer Impriſonment for Three Months without Bail or Mainprize.

ſhall bear upon Timber, &c. on the Penalty of 3 Months Impriſonment.

XIII. And whereas, ſince Frames of Wood have been in Uſe for Doors and Windows, it has been the common Practice of Workmen, to ſet them very near, and often quite ranging with the Outſide Face of the Wall, by which Means (being under no Shelter from the Weather) they ſoon rot and periſh, occaſioning great Coſt and Expence in perpetual Repairs: For Prevention of ſuch Evil and unſkilful Practice for the future, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and nine, no Door Frame, or Window Frame of Wood to be uſed in any Houſe or Building, which ſhall be erected upon old or new Foundations within the aforeſaid Cities of London and Weſtminſter, or their Liberties (except Houſes on London Bridge, and on the River of Thames below Bridge) ſhall be ſet nearer to the Outſide Face of the Wall than Four Inches.

No Door Frame, &c. of Wood to be nearer the Outſide of the Wall than 4 Inches.

An Act to preſerve the Rights of Patrons to Advowſons.

FORASMUCH as the Pleading in a Quare impedit is found very difficult, whereby many Patrons are either defeated of their Rights of Preſentation, or put to great Charge and Trouble to recover their Right, which is occaſioned by the Law as it now is: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That no Uſurpation upon any Avoidance in any Church, Vicaridge, or other Eccleſiaſtical Promotion, ſhall diſplace the Eſtate or Intereſt of any Perſon entitled to the Advowſon or Patronage thereof, or turn it to a Right, but he or ſhe that would have had a Right, if no Uſurpation had been, may preſent or maintain his or her Quare impedit upon the next, or any other Avoidance, if diſturbed, notwithſtanding ſuch Uſurpation; and if Coparceners, or Joint Tenants, or Tenants in common be ſeized of any Eſtate of Inheritance in the Advowſon of any Church or Vicaridge, or other Eccleſiaſtical Promotion, and a Partition is or ſhall be made between them to preſent by Turns, that thereupon every one ſhall be taken and adjudged to be ſeized of his or her ſeparate Part of the Advowſon to preſent in his or her Turn; as if there be Two, and they make ſuch Partition, each ſhall be ſaid to be ſeized, the One of the one Moiety to preſent in the firſt Turn, the other of the other Moiety to preſent in the ſecond Turn; in like Manner, if there be Three, Four, or more, every one ſhall be ſaid to be ſeized of his or her Part, and to preſent in his or her Turn.

No Uſurpation ſhall diſplace the Eſtate of the Patron, but he may maintain a Quare impedit.

If Coparceners, &c. be ſeized of an Advowſon, &c. and a Partition is made to preſent by Turns, each ſhall be ſeized of a ſeparate Eſtate to preſent accordingly.

IX. And it is hereby further enacted, That all and every Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall lend any Money upon ſuch Credit, as aforeſaid, and pay the ſame into the Receipt of the Exchequer, ſhall immediately have a Talley of Loan ſtruck for the ſame, and an Order for his, her, or their Repayment, bearing the ſame Date with his, her, or their Tallies; in or upon which Order ſhall alſo be contained a Warrant for Payment of Intereſt for the Forbearance thereof, at the Rate aforeſaid, and to be paid every Three Months, until Repayment of the Principal; and that all ſuch Orders for Repayment of Money to be lent, ſhall be regiſtred in Courſe, according to their Dates reſpectively, without other Preference of the one before another; and that all and every Perſon or Perſons ſhall be paid in Courſe, according as their Orders ſhall ſtand regiſtred in the ſaid Regiſter Book, ſo as the ſaid Perſon, Native or Foreigner, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors, or Aſſigns, who ſhall have his, her, or their Order or Orders firſt entred in the ſaid reſpective Books of Regiſter, ſhall be taken and accounted the firſt Perſon to be paid out of the Monies to come in by this Act; and he, ſhe, or they who ſhall have his, her, or their Order or Orders next entred, ſhall be taken and accounted to be the ſecond Perſon to be paid, and ſo ſucceſſively, and in Courſe; and that the Monies to come in, of or for the ſeveral Impoſitions or Duties by this Act granted or continued, as aforeſaid, as alſo the Monies, which by the ſaid former Acts (after Satisfaction of the Principal and Intereſt thereupon, as aforeſaid) ſhall ariſe by the Impoſitions and Duties thereby granted, as aforeſaid, ſhall be liable in the ſame Order to the Satisfaction of the Monies to be lent, as aforeſaid, to the reſpective Parties, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors, and Aſſigns reſpectively, without undue Preference of one before another, and not otherwiſe; and ſhall not be diverted or divertible to any other Uſe, Intent, or Purpoſe whatſoever; and that no Fee, Reward, or Gratuity, directly or indirectly, be demanded or taken of any of Her Majeſty's Subjects, for providing or making of any ſuch Books or Regiſters, or any Entries, Views, or Search, in or for Payment of Money lent, or the Intereſt thereof, as aforeſaid, by any of Her Majeſty's Officer or Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, on Pain of Payment of Treble Damages to the Party grieved by the Party offending, with Treble Coſts of Suit; or if the Officer himſelf take or demand any ſuch Fee or Reward, then he ſhall alſo loſe his Place or Office; or if any undue Preference of one before another ſhall be made either in Point of Regiſtry or Payment, or if any of the ſaid Money ſhall be diverted or miſapplied contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, by any ſuch Officer or Officers, then the Party offending ſhall be liable by Action of Debt, or on the Caſe, to pay the Value of the Debt, with Damages and Coſts to the Party grieved, and ſhall be forejudged of his Office and Place; and if ſuch Preference be unduly made by any his Deputy or Clerk, without the Direction or Privity of his Maſter, then ſuch Deputy or Clerk only ſhall be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages, and Coſts, and ſhall be for ever after incapable of his Place and Office; and in caſe the Auditor of the Receipt ſhall not direct, or the Clerk of the Pells record, or the Teller make Payment according to each Perſon's due Place and Order, as before directed, then he or they ſhall be adjudged to forfeit, and the reſpective Deputies and Clerks herein offending, to be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, and Coſts, in ſuch Manner, as aforeſaid; all which ſaid Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages, and Coſts, to be incurred by any of the Officers of the Exchequer, or any of their Deputies or Clerks, ſhall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Suit, or Information, in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, Injunction, or Order of Reſtraint, ſhall in any wiſe be granted or allowed.

What ſhall not be interpreted undue Preference.

X. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That if it happen that ſeveral Tallies of Loan, or Orders for Payment, as aforeſaid, bear Date, or be brought the ſame Day to the Auditor of the Receipt to be regiſtred, then it ſhall be interpreted no undue Preference which of thoſe be entred firſt, ſo as he enters them all the ſame Day. Provided alſo, That it ſhall not be interpreted any undue Preference to incur any Penalty in Point of Payment, if the Auditor direct, or the Clerk of the Pells record, or the Tellers do pay ſubſequent Orders to Perſons that come and demand their Monies, and bring their Orders, before other Perſons that did not come to take their Monies, and bring their Orders in their Courſe, ſo as that there be ſo much Money reſerved as will ſatisfy precedent Orders, which ſhall not be otherwiſe diſpoſed, but kept for them, Intereſt upon Loan being to ceaſe from the Time the Money is ſo reſerved and kept in Bank for them.

Orders aſſignable.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all and every Perſon and Perſons to whom any Money ſhall be due for Loans to be regiſtred by virtue of this Act, after Order entred in the Book of Regiſter, as aforeſaid, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, by proper Words of Aſſignment, to be endorſed and written upon his Order, may aſſign or transfer his Right, Title, Intereſt, and Benefit of ſuch Order or any Part thereof, to any other, which being notified in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt aforeſaid, and an Entry or Memorial thereof alſo made in the Book of Regiſtry aforeſaid, for Orders, which the Officer ſhall, upon Requeſt, without Fee or Charge accordingly make, ſhall entitle ſuch Aſſignee, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, to the Benefit thereof, and Payment thereon; and ſuch Aſſignee may, in like Manner, aſſign again, and ſo toties quoties; and afterwards it ſhall not be in the Power of ſuch Perſon or Perſons who have or hath made ſuch Aſſignment, to make void, releaſe, and diſcharge the ſame, or any the Monies thereby due, or any Part thereof.

XII. And whereas in and by One Act of the Fifth Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, a Credit was given for any Sums not exceeding Eight hundred twenty two thouſand three hundred eighty one Pounds, Fifteen Shillings, and Six Pence Farthing; and by another Act of the Sixth Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, a further Credit was given for any Sums not exceeding Seven hundred twenty nine thouſand and ſixty ſeven Pounds, Fifteen Shillings, and Six Pence Three Farthings; and by another Act of the Seventh Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, a further Credit was given for any Sums, not exceeding Six hundred forty five thouſand Pounds, to be borrowed upon thoſe Acts reſpectively, at an Intereſt, after the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum, upon the ſeveral Subſidies, Impoſitions, and Duties in the ſame Acts reſpectively mentioned; and the Lord High Treaſurer, or any Three or more of the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, are by the ſame Acts reſpectively authorized and directed to cauſe the Officers of the Exchequer to receive from time to time, by way of Loan, at the like Intereſt, at the ſaid Receipt, any further Sum or Sums of Money, as ſhould be ſufficient to make good the Payment of all the Intereſt Monies appointed or allowed by the ſame Acts reſpectively, every Three Months, until the Subſidies, Impoſitions, and Duties therein mentioned ſhould come into the Exchequer, and be ſufficient for that Purpoſe, purſuant to the Intent and true Meaning of the ſame Acts reſpectively: Now it is hereby provided and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend to the taking away, altering, or leſſening the ſaid Power and Direction of borrowing Monies to make the Payment of the ſaid Intereſt Monies every Three Months, until the ſaid Subſidies, Impoſitions, and Duties, in the ſaid reſpective Acts mentioned, ſhall come in, and be ſufficient for that Purpoſe, as aforeſaid, or in any wiſe to alter or prejudice the Security given by the ſaid ſeveral Acts of the Fifth, Sixth, and Seventh Years of Her Majeſty's Reign, or any of them, for the Payment and Satisfaction of the ſame, or any other Principal and Intereſt Monies, which were ſecured, or intended to be ſecured by the ſame Acts reſpectively; but that the Orders for the ſame ſhall be regiſtred in Courſe, and paid in the ſame Manner, upon each and every of thoſe Acts, as if this Act had never been made; this preſent Act, or any thing therein contained, or any other Matter or Thing whatſoever to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of their ſaid late Majeſties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majeſties certain Rates and Duties upon Salt, and upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, for ſecuring certain Recompences and Advantages in the ſaid Act mentioned, to ſuch Perſons as ſhall voluntarily advance the Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pounds, towards carrying on the War againſt France, certain Duties upon Salt, and Rock Salt, were granted from the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety four, until the Seventeenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven; and by an Act made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty King WILLIAM, intituled, An Act for continuing to His Majeſty certain Duties upon Salt, Glaſs Wares, Stone and Earthen Wares, and for granting ſeveral Duties upon Tobacco Pipes, and other Earthen Wares, for carrying on the War againſt France, and for eſtabliſhing a National Land Bank, and for taking off the Duties upon Tonnage of Ships, and upon Coals, the ſame Rates and Duties upon Salt, and Rock Salt, were granted or continued to be paid to His ſaid late Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, Kings and Queens of England, for ever; and by an Act made in the Firſt Year of Her now Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for making good Deficiencies, and for preſerving the publick Credit, the ſaid Hereditary Duties upon Salt and Rock Salt are (amongſt other Things) appropriated and directed to be applied towards making good certain deficient Funds therein mentioned, by the Payment and Satisfaction of all the Principal Monies thereupon, then really due, and all Intereſt Monies due and to grow due for the ſame, in the Manner therein mentioned, as by the ſame Acts may ſeverally appear: Now to the end a Proviſion may be made for or towards the better Payment of the Intereſt Monies, which ſhall grow due by this preſent Act every Three Months, for all the Monies which ſhall be advanced or lent thereupon; it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That immediately from and after the Time that all the Principal and Intereſt Monies ſecured by the ſaid Act of the Firſt Year of Her ſaid Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for making good Deficiencies, and for preſerving the publick Credit, ſhall be fully paid off and ſatisfied, or that ſufficient Monies ſhall be reſerved in the Exchequer for that Purpoſe, then all the Monies which from thenceforth until the ſaid Firſt Day of Auguſt, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixteen, ſhall ariſe, or be due, or payable, or be ſecured, or in Arrear, of and for the foreſaid Duties upon Salt, and Rock Salt, granted or continued by the ſaid Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, as aforeſaid (except the neceſſary Charges of raiſing, levying, collecting, and accounting for the ſame) ſhall, from time to time be paid into the Receipt of Exchequer, and ſhall be iſſued and applied, ſo far as the ſame will extend, to and for the Payment and Satisfaction of the Intereſt which ſhall, from to time, grow due for the Monies which ſhall be lent upon or in purſuance of this Act, or of any the Powers or Clauſes therein contained, and to none other Uſe, Intent, or Purpoſe whatſoever; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

1 Annæ, ſtat. 1. c. 13.

After all the Monies ſecured by the Act 1 Annæ, are paid off, then the Duties on Salt, &c. by 7 & 8 W. 3. ſhall be applied to this Act.

XIV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Treaſurer of the Exchequer for the time being (or any Three or more of the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being) and they are hereby authorized and directed to cauſe the Officers of the ſaid Receipt of the Exchequer to receive, from time to time, by way of Loans, from any Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, willing to make the ſame at the ſaid Receipt, ſuch further Sum and Sums of Money (over and above the Sums which ſhall be lent for the Service of the War, and other Her Majeſty's Occaſions, as aforeſaid) as ſhall be ſufficient, together with the Monies coming in by the Duties upon Salt and Rock Salt, as aforeſaid, to compleat and make good the full Payment of all the Intereſt Monies due or payable by this Act, or by any Clauſe therein contained, every Three Months, until the ſaid Impoſitions and Duties granted by this Act, or the Arrears ariſing by the ſaid former Acts, or any of them, firſt happening, ſhall come into the Exchequer, and be ſufficient for that Purpoſe, purſuant to the true Intent and Meaning hereof; and that the Loans ſo to be made for the ſaid intermediate Intereſt, ſhall bear the like Intereſt, and ſhall be free from Taxes, and the Principal thereof ſhall be paid in Courſe, according to the Dates of the reſpective Tallies for the ſame, and the Intereſt thereof, every Three Months, out of the Duties granted, and other Proviſions made by this Act, in the ſame Manner, and as fully and effectually as if ſuch Loans were Part of the ſaid Sum not exceeding One million two hundred ninety ſix thouſand five hundred fifty two Pounds, Nine Shillings, and Eleven Pence Three Farthings, hereby authorized to be lent, as aforeſaid; any thing herein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Clauſe of Loan to ſecure the intermediate Intereſt.

XV. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Sixth Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for continuing ſeveral Duties therein mentioned upon Coffee, Chocolate, Spices, Pictures, and Muſlins, and additional Duties upon ſeveral of the ſaid Commodities, and certain Duties upon Callicoes, China Wares, and Drugs, and for continuing the Duties called the Two Third Subſidies of Tonnage and Poundage, for preſerving the publick Credit; and for aſcertaining the Duties of Coals exported to Foreign Parts; and for ſecuring the Credit of the Bank of England; and for paſſing ſeveral Accounts of Taxes raiſed in the County of Monmouth; and for promoting the Conſumption of ſuch Tobacco as ſhall have paid Her Majeſty's Duties; it is amongſt other Things enacted, That all Coals exported beyond the Seas, from and after the End of the then preſent Seſſion of Parliament, until the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and fifteen, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, from Great Britain in Britiſh Bottoms, ſhall only pay Three Shillings the Chaldron, and after that Rate for greater or leſſer Quantities; any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding, as by the ſame Act more at large may appear: And whereas the ſaid Duty is a great Hindrance to the Britiſh Navigation, and leſſens the Exportation of Coals from Great Britain to Parts beyond the Seas; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Five and twentieth Day of December, in the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred and ten, the ſaid Duty of Three Shillings per Chaldron ſhall ceaſe, and be no longer paid; any thing in the ſaid Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Overſea Duties on Coals in Britiſh Bottoms, after 25 Dec. 1710. to ceaſe.
6 Annæ, c. 22.

XVI. And whereas by the Laws of this Realm, every Perſon importing Tobacco, and other Foreign Goods, from any Part of Great Britain, is entitled to a Drawback of Part of the Duties paid or ſecured at the Importation thereof; and it hath been found by Experience, that great Quantities of ſuch Tobacco and other Foreign Goods after they have been ſhipped for Exportation, have been privately relanded in this Realm; and the Remedies already provided by Law, have not been ſufficient to obviate a Practice ſo very prejudicial to Her Majeſty's Revenue, and to all fair and honeſt Traders in ſuch Goods: For the better Prevention whereof for the future, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſeven and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ten, in caſe any Tobacco, or other foreign Goods, contained or ſpecified in any Certificate whereupon any ſuch Drawback is to be made, or whereupon any Debenture is to be made forth for any ſuch Drawback, ſhall not be really and bona fide ſhipped and exported (the Danger of the Seas and Enemies excepted) or ſhall be landed again in any Part of Great Britain, unleſs in caſe of Diſtreſs to ſave the Goods from periſhing, which ſhall be preſently made known to the Perſon or Perſons which are or ſhall be appointed by Her Majeſty to manage Her Cuſtoms, or principal Officers of the Port; then not only all ſuch Tobacco and other certificate Goods ſhall be forfeited and loſt, but alſo the

Such Goods relanded, forfeited, and double the Value of the Drawback, with the Veſſel, &c. Seizures made by Virtue of this Act, to be determined by Two Juſtices of Peace, 8 Geo. 1. c. 18. §. 16.

Perſon or Perſons (being the Exporters, or any others) who ſhall bring back, or cauſe, or procure to be re-landed ſuch Tobacco, and other certificate Goods, or any of them, in any Part of Great Britain, or be aſſiſting, or otherwiſe concerned in the unſhipping the ſame, or to whoſe Hands the ſame ſhall knowingly come, after the unſhipping thereof, or by whoſe Privity, Knowledge, or Direction the ſaid Tobacco and other Goods, or any Part thereof, ſhall be ſo re-landed, ſhall forfeit double the Amount of the ſaid Drawback for ſuch Goods, together with the Veſſels and Boats, and all the Horſes or other Cattle and Carriages whatſoever, made uſe of in the Landing, Removing, Carriage, or Conveyance of the ſame; One Moiety of all which Penalties or Forfeitures ſhall be to the Uſe of Her Majeſty, and the other Moiety to him or them that ſhall inform, ſeize, or ſue for the ſame, to be recovered by Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, at any Time or Times within Five Years after the Offence ſhall be committed; wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

Officers conniving, incapacitated, and impriſoned for 6 Months.

Maſter conniving, impriſoned for 6 Months.

XVII. And it is hereby enacted, That if any Officer of the Cuſtoms ſhall connive or aſſiſt in any Fraud, relating to ſuch certificate Goods, as aforeſaid, ſuch Officer (over and above any other Penalties, to which he is or may be liable by this or any other Act) ſhall forfeit his Office, and be rendred incapable of ſerving Her Majeſty for the future, and ſuffer Six Months Impriſonment, without Bail or Mainprize; and if any Maſter, Commander, or other Perſon belonging to any Ship or Veſſel, ſhall aſſiſt in, or connive at the fraudulent landing any ſuch certificate Goods, as aforeſaid, he, ſhe, or they (over and above all other Penalties provided by this, or any other Act or Acts now in force) ſhall for every ſuch Offence ſuffer Impriſonment by the Space of Six Months, without Bail or Mainprize.

No Debenture for Tobacco to Ireland, till a Certificate from the Collector, &c. in Ireland, of the landing the ſame there, by 6 Geo. 1 c. 21. § 48. 2*l. per Cent.* to be allowed for Tobacco exported to Ireland in caſe of Waſte. Fee 1*s.*

XVIII. And for preventing the running of Tobacco into this Kingdom, under Pretence of exporting the ſame to Ireland; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Debenture ſhall be paid or allowed for any Tobacco exported from any Port of Great Britain, to the Kingdom of Ireland, until a Certificate ſhall be produced under the Hands and Seals of the Collector, Comptroller, and Surveyor of the Cuſtoms of any Port in Ireland, or any Two of them, where ſuch Goods ſhall be landed, teſtifying the landing thereof, (the Danger of the Seas, or Enemies excepted) any Law to the contrary notwithſtanding; which Certificate the Collector, Comptroller, and Searcher of the Cuſtoms, or any Two of them, of each Port in Ireland, are impowered and required to deliver forthwith, upon the Diſcharge of ſuch Tobacco, and not to take above One Shilling Fee for making out and Delivery of ſuch Certificate.

Maſter carrying certificate Goods to Ireland to take a Duplicate of his Content from the Collector, &c.

XIX. And as a further Security of Her Majeſty's Revenues, both in Great Britain and Ireland; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Maſter of every Ship carrying ſuch certificate Goods to Ireland, ſhall demand and take from the Collector of every reſpective Port of Great Britain, a Duplicate of his Content in Writing, certified under the Hand and Seal of the Collector and Comptroller of ſuch Port (which ſaid Duplicate the Collector and Comptroller of each Port in Great Britain, are hereby required to deliver to every Maſter, without Fee or Reward) and ſuch Maſter ſhall be obliged to deliver ſuch Duplicate to the Officers of the Cuſtoms in Ireland on his Arrival, before he be permitted to land ſuch Goods there.

No Debenture for Tobacco exported in any Ship under 20 Tuns.

XX. And whereas an illegal Trade is uſually carried on in ſmall Veſſels or Boats; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Debenture ſhall be made forth, nor any Drawback be paid or allowed for any Tobacco exported to any Place, in any Ship or Veſſel under the Burthen of Twenty Tuns; any Law, Statute, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

XXI. And whereas by an Exception or Clauſe contained in an Act made in the Third Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to Her Majeſty a further Subſidy on Wines and Merchandizes imported, it was provided, That ſuch Corans as ſhould be imported in Engliſh built Shipping, navigated according to Law, ſhould be exempted from paying the Two Third Subſidy granted by the ſaid Act: And whereas by a Clauſe in an Act made in the Fourth Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, for continuing an additional Subſidy of Tonnage and Poundage, it was amongſt other Things enacted and declared, That the Exception contained in the aforeſaid Act, whereby Corans imported in Engliſh built Shipping, navigated according to Law, were exempted from the ſaid Duty, ſhould be extended to ſuch Corans as, after the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, ſhould be imported in Ships belonging to any of the Subjects of the Republick of Venice, ſo that they alſo ſhould be exempted from Payment of the Two Thirds Subſidy granted by the aforeſaid Act; any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding: And whereas by an Act made in the Sixth Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, for continuing the ſeveral Duties therein mentioned, the ſaid Two Thirds Subſidies were continued for Three Years, from the Seventh Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and eight, with an Exception as to Corans imported in Engliſh built Shipping, according to the ſaid Act of the Third Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, and no Notice is taken of the Explanation thereof in the ſaid Act of the Fourth of Her Majeſty's Reign, as to Venetian Shipping alſo, whereby ſome Doubts have ariſen, whether Corans imported in Venetian Shipping ought to be exempted from the Continuation of the Two Thirds Subſidy, according to the Proviſion before recited in the ſaid Act of the Fourth Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, extending the Exemption to them: For preventing which Doubts, and in Regard it would be very hard to reſtrain the Subjects of Venice from importing the Goods of their own Growth in their own Shipping; be it therefore declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Clauſe in the Act of the Fourth Year of the Queen's Reign, for exempting Corans imported in Venetian Shipping from paying the Duty of Two Thirds Subſidy, was intended, and is to be underſtood, from the Time of paſſing the ſame Act, to be a perpetual Clauſe attending the Continuation of that Duty, and not limited unto the Firſt Grant thereof; any thing in the ſaid Act of the Sixth, or in any other ſubſequent Act, to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

XXII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and paſſed in the Second and Third Year of the Reign of Her preſent Majeſty our moſt gracious Sovereign Lady Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for granting to Her Majeſty an additional Subſidy of Tonnage and Poundage for Three Years, and for laying a further Duty upon French Wines condemned as lawful Prize, and for aſcertaining the Value of unrated Goods imported from the Eaſt Indies, it is therein, amongſt other Things, enacted, That all Engliſh Merchants ſhould, from and after the Eighth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, have Eighteen Months Time allowed them from the Entry Inwards for the Exportation of all Tobacco, Sugar, Ginger, Pepper, Bugles, Caſt and Bar Iron, Dying Wood, Dying Wares, and Drugs, and ſhould have the like Benefit and Drawback by ſuch Exportations, as if the ſame had been exported within Twelve Months: And whereas the Time allowed to Foreigners for Exportation of ſuch Goods is limited to Nine Months, which by Experience is found to be too ſhort, and very inconvenient to Trade; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that all Foreign Merchants, or all Britiſh Merchants commiſſioned by them, ſhall from and after the ſeven and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ten, have Fifteen Months Time from the Entry Inwards of all Tobacco, Sugar, Ginger, Pepper, Bugles, Caſt and Bar Iron, Dying Wood, Dying Wares, and Drugs (already imported or to be imported) allowed them to export the ſame, and ſhall have the like Benefit and Drawback by ſuch Exportation, as if the ſame had been exported within Nine Months, according to the Second Rule in the Book of Rates; the ſaid Rule, or any other Law or Cuſtom now in force relating thereunto notwithſtanding: Provided Certificates be taken forth, and Oath made, and all other Requiſites performed, according to the Laws now in being.

Foreign Merchants to have 15 Months Time for Exportation of certain Foreign Goods. Theſe 15 Months enlarged to 3 Years, &c. by 7 Geo. 1. ſtat. 1. c. 21. §. 10.

XXIII. And whereas the Laws of this Realm do require, That for Ships trading to or in Her Majeſty's Plantations, lading Sugars and other enumerated Commodities there, Bonds be given, which are commonly called Plantation Bonds, with Condition to bring the ſame Goods to Great Britain, or to ſome other of Her Majeſty's Plantations, or to that effect: Now to prevent the Diſcouragement which Perſons trading to and from the ſaid Plantations do or may lie under by the ſaid Bonds lying out againſt them, although the Conditions thereof are or ſhall have been performed; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That as to ſuch of the ſaid Plantation Bonds as have been entred into at any Time or Times before the Eight and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ten, and are now remaining in the Hands of any of Her Majeſty's Officers, in caſe there ſhall be no Proſecution for ſome Breach or Non-performance of the reſpective Conditions thereof before the Eight and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and thirteen, or if upon ſuch Proſecution Judgment be not obtained for Her Majeſty before the Eight and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and Fifteen, then ſuch of the ſaid Plantation Bonds, ſo already entred into, ſhall (for want of ſuch Proſecution or Judgment) be void; and as to ſuch Plantation Bonds as ſhall be entred into after the ſaid Eight and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ten, in caſe there ſhall be no Proſecution for ſome Breach or Non-performance of the reſpective Conditions thereof, within Three Years after the Dates thereof, or if upon ſuch Proſecution as is laſt-mentioned Judgment be not obtained for Her Majeſty within the Space of Two Years after the ſame Proſecution commenced, then every ſuch Plantation Bond, which ſhall hereafter be entred into, as aforeſaid (in Default of ſuch Proſecution to be commenced, and Judgment to be obtained within the Times before limited) ſhall alſo be void: And all the ſaid Plantation Bonds ſo made void by this Act, ſhall be delivered up by the Officers, having the ſame in their keeping, to be cancelled, without Fee or Reward.

Clauſe to limit a Time for Proſecutions upon Plantation Bonds: 12 Car. 2. c. 18. 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 16. 25 Car. 2. c. 7.

XXIV. And whereas by an Act made in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty King William the Third, intituled, An Act for the more effectual employing the Poor, by encouraging the Manufactures of this Kingdom, upon the Exportation of wrought Silks, and other Commodities therein mentioned, Security is to be taken in the Manner therein expreſt: Now in Regard it may happen ſome of theſe Goods may be vended in Foreign Parts, from which no Certificate can be produced, as the ſaid Act requires, to diſcharge the Security laſt-mentioned; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That as to ſuch of the Securities laſt-mentioned, as have been entred into at any Time or Times, before the Eight and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ten, and are now remaining in the Hands of any of Her Majeſty's Officers, in caſe there ſhall be no Proſecution for ſome Breach, or Non-performance of the reſpective Conditions thereof, before the Eight and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and thirteen, or if upon ſuch Proſecution Judgment be not obtained for Her Majeſty before the Eight and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and fifteen, then ſuch of the ſaid Securities ſo already entred into upon Exportation of ſuch Silks, and other Commodities laſt-mentioned, ſhall (for want of ſuch Proſecution or Judgment) be void; and as to ſuch Securities as ſhall be entred into, after the ſaid Eight and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ten, upon Exportation of ſuch wrought Silks, and other Commodities as are laſt-mentioned, in caſe there ſhall be no Proſecution for ſome Breach, or Non-performance of the reſpective Conditions thereof, within Three Years after the Dates thereof, or if upon ſuch Proſecution as is laſt-mentioned; Judgment be not obtained for Her Majeſty within the Space of Two Years after the ſame Proſecution commenced, then every ſuch Security relating to wrought Silks or ſuch other Goods as are laſt-mentioned, which ſhall hereafter be entred into, as aforeſaid, (in Default of ſuch Proſecution to be commenced, and Judgment to be obtained within the Times before limited) ſhall alſo be void; and all ſuch Securities ſo made void by this Act, ſhall be delivered up by the reſpective Officers, having the ſame in their keeping, to be cancelled without Fee or Reward.

Or upon wrought Silk, and other Commodities mentioned in 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 10.

XXV. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Officer of Her Majeſty's Revenue, having the Cuſtody of any of the Bonds by this Act required to be delivered up to be cancelled, as aforeſaid, ſhall upon reaſonable demand refuſe or neglect to deliver up ſuch Bonds, according to the Purport and true Meaning of this Act, then the Officer ſo offending, ſhall for every ſuch Offence, be, and is hereby made liable to anſwer to the Party grieved, all his Damages, together with Treble Coſts of Suit.

Officer not delivering up ſuch Bonds, to pay Damages and Treble Coſts.

XXVI. Bread to be made according to the Table following.

A TABLE

A TABLE of the ASSIZE of BREAD,

In Pounds, Ounces, and Drams, Averdupois Weight.

EXPLANATION:

In the Firſt and Laſt Columns is the Price of the Buſhel of Wheat, from 2 s. to 15 s. the Buſhel, the Allowance of the Magiſtrates to the Baker for Baking being included: And in the other Columns is the Weight of the ſeveral Loaves. So that (for Example) if the Price of Wheat is 5 s. the Buſhel, and the Magiſtrates allow 1 s. 6 d. the Buſhel to the Baker for Baking, then even with 6 s. 6 d. in the Firſt or Laſt Column, will be found the Weight of the ſeveral Loaves; but if the Price is 3 s. the Buſhel, and the Allowance 1 s. then the Weight of the ſaid Loaves will be found even with 4 s.

NOTE, That the White Loaves are One Half, and the Wheaten Three Quarters of the Weight of Houſhold Loaves.

and by the ſaid Acts, or ſome of them, the ſaid Funds are further charged with a Sum of Two hundred thouſand Pounds yearly, for the diſcharging and cancelling the ſaid Bills, as in and by the ſaid ſeveral Acts of Parliament (Relation being thereunto reſpectively had) may more fully appear: And whereas we Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament aſſembled, did reſolve on the Sixteenth Day of January, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ten, That an annual Sum, not exceeding Forty five thouſand Pounds, ſhould be granted, to enable Your Majeſty to contract for anſwering all Non-ſpecie Exchequer Bills, by exchanging them from time to time for ready Money; 12 Car. 2. c. 35.

MOST gracious Sovereign, whereas by an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King CHARLES the Second, a General Poſt Office was erected and eſtabliſhed in that Part of Great Britain called England, and by the Twentieth Act of the Fifth Seſſion of the Firſt Parliament of His late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, a General Poſt Office was erected and eſtabliſhed in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and ſeveral Rates of Poſtage were thereby ſeverally appointed to be received, under ſeveral different Powers and Authorities; which Two Kingdoms being ſince united, it is moſt likely that a Correſpondence by Poſts will be beſt managed and ordered for the publick Good, by uniting alſo the ſaid Two Poſt Offices under One Poſtmaſter General: And whereas alſo Poſts have at great Charges been eſtabliſhed by Packet Boats between that Part of Great Britain called England and the Weſt Indies, and alſo on the main Land in North America, through moſt of Her Majeſty's Plantations and Colonies in thoſe Parts, as alſo to divers Parts in Europe, to which no Packet Boats were till lately ſettled, and more Poſts may yet be ſettled and eſtabliſhed for the publick Good and Welfare of all Your Majeſty's Subjects: And whereas the ſeveral Rates of Poſtage may in many Parts, with little Burthen to the Subject, be encreaſed, and other new Rates granted, which additional and new Rates may, in ſome Meaſure, enable Your Majeſty to carry on and finiſh the preſent War, ſo as ſuitable Powers and Authorities be made for collecting the ſame, and ſufficient Proviſion be made, as well for preventing the undue collecting the Delivery of Letters by private Poſts, Carriers, Higlers, Watermen, Drivers of Stage Coaches, and other Perſons, as all other Frauds to which the Revenue might otherwiſe be liable; which cannot be well and properly done, to anſwer the Ends aforeſaid, without the Authority of Parliament in a new Act to be made for the ſaid Office, and for the Revenues to ariſe thereby: We therefore Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament aſſembled, do moſt humbly beſeech Your Majeſty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Act made in England in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for erecting and eſtabliſhing a Poſt Office, and the ſaid Act made in Scotland in the Fifth Seſſion of the Firſt Parliament of His ſaid late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act anent the Poſt Office, and every Article, Clauſe, and Thing therein or in either of them contained, ſhall be, and is and are hereby, from and after the Firſt Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and eleven, actually repealed, except as is herein after mentioned.

And to the end a General Poſt Office may be eſtabliſhed for and throughout Her Majeſty's Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, Her Colonies and Plantations in North America, and the Weſt Indies, and all other Her Majeſty's Dominions and Territories, in ſuch Manner as may be moſt beneficial to the People of theſe Kingdoms, and Her Majeſty may be ſupplied, and the Revenue ariſing by the ſaid Office better improved, ſettled, and ſecured to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, in ſuch Manner as is herein after mentioned; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and eleven, there be from thenceforth One General Letter Office and Poſt Office erected and eſtabliſhed in ſome convenient Place within the City of London, from whence all Letters and Packets whatſoever may be with Speed and Expedition ſent into any Part of the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, or to North America, the Weſt Indies, or to any other of Her Majeſty's Dominions or Territories, or unto any other Kingdom or Country beyond the Seas, at which ſaid Office all Returns and Anſwers may be likewiſe received; and that One Maſter of the ſaid General Letter Office and Poſt Office ſhall be, from time to time, appointed by the Queen's Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, to be made and conſtituted by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of Great Britain, by the Name and Stile of Her Majeſty's Poſtmaſter General; which ſaid Maſter of the ſaid Office, and his Deputy and Deputies by him thereunto ſufficiently authorized, and his and their Servants and Agents, and no other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, ſhall, from time to time, and at all Times, have the receiving, taking up, ordering, diſpatching, ſending Poſt, or with Speed, carrying and delivering of all Letters and Packets whatſoever, which ſhall, from time to time, and at all or any Times, be ſent to and from all and every the Parts and Places of Great Britain and Ireland, North America, the Weſt Indies, and other Her Majeſty's Dominions, and alſo to and from all and every the Kingdoms and Countries beyond the Seas, where he ſhall ſettle or cauſe to be ſettled Poſts, or running Meſſengers for that Purpoſe: Except ſuch Letters as ſhall reſpectively concern Goods ſent by common known Carriers of Goods by Carts, Waggons, or Pack Horſes, and ſhall be reſpectively delivered with the Goods ſuch Letters do concern, without Hire or Reward, or other Profit or Advantage for receiving or delivering ſuch Letters; and except Letters of Merchants, and Maſters, Owners of any Ships, Barques, or Veſſels of Merchandize, or any the Cargo or Loading therein, ſent on board ſuch Ships, Barques, or Veſſels of Merchandize, whereof ſuch Merchants or Maſters are Owners, as aforeſaid, and delivered by any Maſters of any ſuch Ships, Barques, or Veſſels of Merchandize, or by any other Perſon employed by them for the Carriage of ſuch Letters aforeſaid, according to their reſpective Directions, ſo as ſuch Letters be delivered to the reſpective Perſons to whom they ſhall be directed without paying or receiving any Hire or Reward, Advantage, or Profit for the ſame in any wiſe; and alſo except Commiſſions, or the Return thereof, Affidavits, Writs, Proceſs, or Proceedings or Returns thereof, iſſuing out of any Court; and alſo any Letter or Letters to be ſent by any private Friend or Friends, in their Way of Journey or Travel, or by any Meſſenger or Meſſengers ſent on Purpoſe for or concerning the private Affair of any Perſon or Perſons.

One General Poſt Office to be erected,

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of Trinity Term, as often as in any of the Caſes aforeſaid, any Writ of Mandamus ſhall iſſue out of any of the ſaid Courts, and a Return ſhall be made thereunto, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Perſon or Perſons ſuing or proſecuting ſuch Writ of Mandamus, to plead to, or traverſe all or any the material Facts contained within the ſaid Return; to which the Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Return ſhall reply, take Iſſue, or demur; and ſuch further Proceedings, and in ſuch Manner ſhall be had therein, for the Determination thereof, as might have been had if the Perſon or Perſons ſuing ſuch Writ had brought his or their Action on the Caſe for a falſe Return; and if any Iſſue ſhall be joined on ſuch Proceedings, the Perſon or Perſons ſuing ſuch Writ ſhall and may try the ſame in ſuch Place as an Iſſue joined in ſuch Action on the Caſe ſhould or might have been tried; and in caſe a Verdict ſhall be found for the Perſon or Perſons ſuing ſuch Writ, or Judgment given for him or them upon a Demurrer, or by Nil dicit, or for Want of a Replication or other Pleading, he or they ſhall recover his or their Damages and Coſts in ſuch Manner as he or they might have done in ſuch Action on the Caſe as aforeſaid; ſuch Coſts and Damages to be levied by Capias ad Satisfaciendum, Fieri Facias, or Elegit; and a peremptory Writ of Mandamus ſhall be granted without Delay, for him or them for whom Judgment ſhall be given, as might have been, if ſuch Return had been adjudged inſufficient; and in caſe Judgement ſhall be given for the Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Return to ſuch Writ, he or they ſhall recover his or their Coſts of Suit, to be levied in Manner aforeſaid.

As ſoon as the Return is made, the Proſecutor in ſuch Writ may plead, &c.

to which the Perſon returning may reply, &c.

How the Proceedings ſhall be.

III. Provided always, That if any Damages ſhall be recovered by virtue of this Act againſt any ſuch Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Return to ſuch Writ, as aforeſaid, he or they ſhall not be liable to be ſued in any other Action or Suit, for the making ſuch Return; any Law, Uſage or Cuſtom to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Perſons againſt whom Damages ſhall be recovered, nor liable to be ſued in other Actions.

How Informations in the Nature of Quo Warranto may be exhibited againſt ſuch as intrude, &c. into Offices, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of Trinity Term, in caſe any Perſon or Perſons ſhall uſurp, intrude into, or unlawfully hold and execute any of the ſaid Offices or Franchiſes, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the proper Officer in each of the ſaid reſpective Courts, with the Leave of the ſaid Courts reſpectively, to exhibit One or more Information or Informations in the Nature of a Quo Warranto, at the Relation of any Perſon or Perſons deſiring to ſue or proſecute the ſame, and who ſhall be mentioned in ſuch Information or Informations to be the Relator or Relators againſt ſuch Perſon or Perſons, ſo uſurping, intruding into, or unlawfully holding and executing any of the ſaid Offices or Franchiſes, and to proceed therein in ſuch Manner as is uſual in Caſes of Information in the Nature of a Quo Warranto; and if it ſhall appear to the ſaid reſpective Courts, that the ſeveral Rights of divers Perſons to the ſaid Offices or Franchiſes may properly be determined on One Information, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid reſpective Courts to give Leave to exhibit One ſuch Information againſt ſeveral Perſons, in order to try their reſpective Rights to ſuch Offices or Franchiſes, and ſuch Perſon or Perſons, againſt whom ſuch Information or Informations in the Nature of a Quo Warranto ſhall be ſued or proſecuted, ſhall appear and plead as of the ſame Term or Seſſions in which the ſaid Information or Informations ſhall be filed, unleſs the Court where ſuch Information ſhall be filed, ſhall give further Time to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, againſt whom ſuch Information ſhall be exhibited, to plead; and ſuch Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall ſue or proſecute ſuch Information or Informations in the Nature of a Quo Warranto, ſhall proceed thereupon with the moſt convenient Speed that may be; any Law or Uſage to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

EXP.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the Sixth Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Trade to America; it is, among other Things, enacted, That the Flag-Officers, Commanders, and other Officers and Seamen of any Ship or Veſſel of War in Her Majeſty's Pay or Service, and the Owner or Owners of any Private Ship of War, authorized and appointed by Commiſſion or Commiſſions according to the ſaid Act, during the preſent War, to attack, ſurprize, ſeize, and take any Ship, or other Private Ship or Ships of War, or Veſſels, Goods, Ammunition, Arms, Stores of War, or Merchandizes, belonging to, or poſſeſſed by any of Her Majeſty's Enemies, in any Sea, Creek, Haven, or River in America, (except as therein is excepted) ſhall have the ſole Intereſt and Property of and in all and every ſuch Ship, Veſſel, Goods, and Merchandizes, being firſt adjudged lawful Prize, in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Admiralty, and ſubject to the Cuſtoms and Duties payable to Her Majeſty, as if the ſame had been firſt imported to any Part of Great Britain, and from thence exported, for and in reſpect of all ſuch Goods and Merchandizes, to be divided and diſpoſed of as in the ſaid Act is directed; in purſuance of which Act ſeveral Bonds and other Securities have been given for the Payment of ſuch Cuſtoms and Duties for Prize Goods and Merchandizes taken in America, and adjudged to be lawful Prize; but by Experience it is found that the ſubjecting ſuch Prize Goods and Merchandizes taken in America, to ſuch Cuſtoms and Duties, as if the ſame had been imported into any Part of Great Britain, and from thence exported, hath been very prejudicial to Her Majeſty's Plantations and Colonies, and hath, in a great Meaſure, prevented the Importation thereof into thoſe Plantations and Colonies; be it therefore enacted, &c.

6 Annæ, c. 37.

After 1 June, 1711. all Prize Goods, &c. taken in America, ſhall be liable to Duties. See 10 Annæ, c. 22.

The Tenor, &c. of the ſaid Bonds, &c. to be certified to the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in England, who ſhall make Report thereof to the Commons in next Parliament. Ship Maſter, paying Over Sea Duties for Coals, to have Coaſt Bond diſcharged.

VI. And whereas the exporting Coals to Parts beyond the Seas, in Britiſh Ships, tends very much to the Improvement and Increaſe of the Britiſh Navigation; To the end therefore that all reaſonable Encouragement may be given to ſuch Exportation; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That any Ship Maſter, whoſe Ship is loaden with Coals only, and has entred into Bond to deliver the ſaid Coals in ſome Port of Great Britain, may, upon producing his Coaſt Cocquet, and making Oath of the true Quantity of Coals aboard his Ship (ſuch Quantity not being leſs than is expreſſed in the ſaid Cocquet) before the proper Officer of the Cuſtoms, in any Port of Great Britain, pay the Cuſtom or Over-Sea Duty for ſuch Coals, and ſhall, on ſuch Payment, receive a Certificate, ſigned and ſealed by the Cuſtomer and Comptroller of ſuch Port, for ſuch Duty ſo paid; which Certificate, being given into the Cuſtom Houſe of the Port where ſuch Coals were laid on board, ſhall diſcharge the Coaſt Bond given by ſuch Ship Maſter, in the ſame Manner as if the ſaid Coals had been landed in ſome Port of Great Britain.

VIII. And for preventing the great Abuſes to Her Majeſty in Her Cuſtoms and Revenue, by the ſecret Practices between the Fitter, or Perſon laying Coals on board the Ships, and the Ship Maſters, by laying the ſaid Coals on board in Keels and Veſſels not admeaſured, gauged, and marked, according to Law; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Fitter, or other Perſon laying, loading, or putting Coals on board any Ship, or other Veſſel, in the Port of Newcaſtle upon Tine, Sunderland upon the River Ware, Cullecoats, Seaton Sluice, Blythe Nooke, or any other the Members, Havens, Creeks and Places whatſoever, to the ſaid Port of Newcaſtle belonging, or in any wiſe appertaining, by or in any Keel, Cart, Wain, or other Veſſel, not admeaſured, gauged, and marked, according to the Law in that Caſe made and provided, ſhall forfeit and pay for every ſuch Offence the Sum of Ten Pounds.

Not to reſtore the Right of Preſentation to Patrons who have ſold the ſame.

III. Provided alſo, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe the Patron of any Church aforeſaid, ſhall neglect or refuſe to preſent any qualified Miniſter to ſuch Church that ſhall be vacant the ſaid Firſt Day of May, or ſhall happen to be vacant at any Time thereafter, for the Space of Six Months, after the ſaid Firſt Day of May, or after ſuch Vacancy ſhall happen, that the Right of Preſentation ſhall accrue and belong for that Time to the Presbytery of the Bounds where ſuch Church is, who are to preſent a qualified Perſon for that Vacancy tanquam Jure devoluto.

Patronages, which before Epiſcopacy was aboliſhed, belonged to Archbiſhops, &c. ſhall belong to Her Majeſty, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Patronage and Right of Preſentations of Miniſters to all Churches which belonged to Archbiſhops, Biſhops, or other dignified Perſons, in the Year One thouſand ſix hundred eighty nine, before Epiſcopacy was aboliſhed, as well as thoſe which formerly belonged to the Crown, ſhall and do of Right belong to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, who may preſent qualified Miniſters to ſuch Church or Churches, and diſpoſe of the vacant Stipends thereof for pious Uſes, in the ſame Way and Manner as Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, may do in the Caſe of other Patronages belonging to the Crown.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That an Act made in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of His late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for exempting Apothecaries from ſerving the Offices of Conſtable, Scavenger, and other Pariſh and Ward Offices, and from ſerving upon Juries, which Act was to continue for the Space of Seven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament; which Act was by an Act made in the Firſt Year of Her preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for reviving the Act, intituled, An Act for exempting Apothecaries from ſerving the Offices of Conſtable, Scavenger, and other Pariſh and Ward Offices, and from ſerving upon Juries, continued for the Space of Seven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament; which Act will expire at the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, after the Eleventh Day of February, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twelve, ſhall be and remain in full Force from and after the Expiration thereof, for the Space of Eleven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament.

The Clauſe in 7 & 8 W. 3 c. 32. §. 7. relating to the returning of Jurors in Yorkſhire, explained.

VI. Nor to repeal any Power granted to the Juſtices of Devon, by the private Act of 9 Annæ, c. 4.

CAP. XV.

An Act for repealing a Clauſe in the Statute made in the Twenty firſt Year of the Reign of King James the Firſt, intituled, An Act for the further Deſcription of a Bankrupt, and Relief of Creditors againſt ſuch as ſhall become Bankrupts, and for inflicting corporal Puniſhment upon the Bankrupts, in ſome ſpecial Caſes, which makes Deſcriptions of Bankrupts; and for the Explanation of the Laws relating to Bankruptcy, in caſe of Partnerſhip.

IX. And whereas in and by One other Act made at Weſtminſter in the Sixth Year of Her preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better ſecuring the Trade of this Kingdom by Cruizers and Convoys, amongſt other Things therein contained, it is enacted, That after the Sale or Sales of ſuch Prize or Prizes as ſhall be taken from the Enemy, Publick Notification ſhould be given by the Perſons or Agents appointed for the Payment of the ſeveral Shares to the Captors; after which Publick Notification, if any Shares ſhall remain in the Hands of the Perſons or Agents appointed, as by the ſaid Act is directed, either belonging to ſuch Men as ſhall die or run from the Service, or ſuch as ſhall not legally be demanded within Three Years, then ſuch Share or Shares ſo remaining in the Perſons or Agents Hands, ſhall go to, and be paid to the Uſe of Greenwich Hoſpital: In which ſaid Act it is likewiſe, amongſt other Things, further enacted and declared, That as well the Bill or Bills to be made out for the Value of ſuch Prize or Prizes that ſhall be taken into Her Majeſty's Service, as the Bill or Bills to be made out for the Bounty thereby granted to the Commanders, Officers, Seamen, and others, for taking any of the Enemies Ships of War or Privateers, ſhall be made payable to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be authorized and appointed to appraiſe or diſpoſe of ſuch Prize ſo taken from the Enemy, by the Commander, and by the Majority of the Officers, and the major Part of ſuch Ships Company, and others as ſhall have taken the ſame, to be diſtributed and divided by the ſaid Perſon or Perſons, ſo authorized and appointed, amongſt the Captors, in ſuch Manner, Form, and Proportion as is thereby directed; the ſeveral Shares of which Captors (if not legally demanded within Three Years after Publick Notification) ſhall go to the Uſe of Greenwich Hoſpital: In which ſaid Act, no ſufficient Proviſion being made to oblige ſuch Agents or other Perſons to diſcover or duly to account for the Monies remaining in their Hands due to the ſaid Hoſpital; Now for the better and more effectual preſerving and ſecuring all ſuch Intereſts and Shares ſo given and granted by the ſaid Act, to and for the Uſe of the ſaid Hoſpital, and for the better and more certain collecting the ſame; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon and Perſons, Agent and Agents, and others who hath ſold or diſpoſed of, or ſhall hereafter ſell or otherwiſe diſpoſe of any ſuch Prize or Prizes ſo taken, or that ſhall hereafter be ſo taken from the Enemy, ſhall within the Space of Three Calendar Months next after the Firſt Payment or Diſtribution to the Captors of ſuch Prize or Prizes, made in purſuance of ſuch Publick Notification, make out, tranſmit or deliver unto the Treaſurer of the ſaid Royal Hoſpital at Greenwich, for the time being, or to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as he ſhall for that Purpoſe depute or appoint, a true State and Account of the Produce of ſuch Prize and Prizes, together with an Account of the Payments of the ſeveral Shares to the Captors, as ſhall then have been really and bona fide by him or them paid; and alſo that all and every Perſon and Perſons authorized and appointed by the ſaid Act to receive Bills for the Value of ſuch Prize Ship or Ships as are or ſhall be taken into Her Majeſty's Service, in Purſuance of the ſaid Act, and all and every Perſon and Perſons authorized and appointed to receive Bills for the Bounty granted by the ſaid Act, ſhall, within the like Space of Three Calendar Months, next after the Firſt Payment or Diſtribution of ſuch Bills, for the Value of ſuch Prize Ships, taken into Her Majeſty's Service, and of the Bills for Bounty, as aforeſaid, in like Manner make out, tranſmit, or deliver to the Treaſurer for the time being of the ſaid Hoſpital, or to his ſufficient Deputy, a true State and Account of the Payment and Diſtribution of ſuch Bills; and further, That all and every Perſon and Perſons, Agents and others, that by virtue of the ſaid Act hath ſold and diſpoſed of, or that ſhall hereafter ſell or diſpoſe of any Prize or Prizes taken from the Enemy, or that ſhall at any time hereafter be taken from the Enemy by any of Her Majeſty's Ships of War or Privateers, or that ſhall receive and diſpoſe of any Bill or Bills for the Value of ſuch Prizes as ſhall be taken into Her Majeſty's Service, or Bills for Bounty, ſuch Perſon and Perſons, Agents and others, ſo ſelling or diſpoſing thereof, ſhall, within the Space of Three Calendar Months next after the Expiration of the Term of Three Years, limited by the ſaid Act, make out an exact Account of the Produce of ſuch Prize or Prizes, and Bills for Bounty, as alſo for the Payments of the ſeveral Shares to the reſpective Captors, together with a true and juſt Account upon Oath of all ſuch Sum or Sums of Money as ſhall be then remaining in ſuch Agent or Perſon's Cuſtody, Power, or Poſſeſſion; and ſhall at the ſame Time deliver, or cauſe to be delivered to the Treaſurer of the ſaid Hoſpital, for the time being, or to his ſufficient Deputy or Agent, the ſaid Accounts ſo atteſted upon Oath, as aforeſaid, together with all ſuch remaining Sum and Sums of Money then ſo left and remaining in his or their Hands, as aforeſaid, taking his or their Acquittances for the ſame.

The Perſon neglecting to tranſmit ſuch Accounts ſhall forfeit 100*l.* to the ſaid Hoſpital.

X. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Perſon and Perſons hereby directed to tranſmit or deliver all or any the Accounts before mentioned, who ſhall neglect or refuſe to tranſmit or deliver all or any ſuch Account or Accounts, within the Times before limited or appointed, in ſuch Manner and Form as is herein before mentioned, or who ſhall neglect or refuſe to pay over all and every ſuch Sum and Sums of Money as ſhall remain in his or their Hands, Power, Cuſtody, or Poſſeſſion, after the Term of Three Years, to be accounted, as aforeſaid, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay to the Uſe of the ſaid Royal Hoſpital the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to be recovered, with Coſts of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any Court of Record, in which no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, nor more than One Imparlance ſhall be allowed.

Perſons convicted of Fraud in ſtating Accounts to forfeit 100*l.* One Half to the Hoſpital, the other to the Proſecutor.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Fraud, Colluſion, or Deceit ſhall be wittingly or willingly made, uſed, committed, permitted, done, or ſuffered, in the making, ſtating, or balancing any ſuch Accounts, then every Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall be thereof duly convicted, and his and their Aiders and Abettors, ſhall forfeit and pay, for every ſuch Offence, over and above the Penalties and Puniſhments to be inflicted by any other or former Law, the Sum of One hundred Pounds; One Moiety whereof to be to the Uſe of the ſaid Hoſpital, and the other Moiety to the Informer who ſhall ſue for the ſame, to be recovered, with Coſts of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any Court of Record, in which no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, nor more than One Imparlance ſhall be allowed.

Clauſe for limiting a Time for Captors to demand their Shares.

XII. And whereas Her Majeſty by Her moſt gracious Declaration for Encouragement of Her Ships of War and Privateers, bearing Date the Firſt Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and two, was pleaſed to direct, That in caſe any of Her Ships of War, or Merchant Ships employed in Her Service, or any Private Man of War, ſhould take in Fight, ſink, fire, or by any other Means deſtroy any Ship of War, or Private Man of War belonging to, or in the Service of the Enemy, they ſhould have, as a Reward for ſuch Service, for each Piece of Ordnance, whether Iron or Braſs, in any Ship of War, or Private Man of War, ſo taken or deſtroyed, Ten Pounds, to be paid out of Her Majeſty's Share of Prizes, and to be ſhared and divided as in the ſaid Declaration is ſpecified: And whereas the Flag Officers, Captains, and other Officers, and Companies of ſeveral of Her Majeſty's Ships of War, did take and deſtroy ſeveral Ships of War and Privateers belonging to, or in the Service of the Enemy, before the Commencement of the ſaid Act of Parliament paſſed in the Sixth Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, and thereby became entitled to ſuch Reward, as aforeſaid, by virtue of the ſaid Declaration; but no Money remaining of Her Majeſty's Share of Prizes in the Receivers Hands, they are like to be deprived of the Benefit of Her Majeſty's ſaid gracious Intention of rewarding ſuch Service, unleſs ſome Proviſion be made by Parliament for ſupplying the ſame: And whereas the Sums of Six thouſand Pounds, and One thouſand two hundred Pounds, Part of the Money remaining due to the ſeveral Captors for their Shares of Prizes, by virtue of the ſaid Declaration, have been paid by the Receiver or Receivers of Prizes into the Receipt of the Exchequer, where the ſame lie uncalled for, though Publick Notice for Payment thereof hath long ſince been publiſhed in the Gazettes; and it being requiſite that ſome certain Time ſhould be limited for the Captors to make their Claims to their Shares of Prizes, by virtue of the ſaid Declaration, and in Default thereof to be barred the ſame, in order to have the Accounts of ſuch Shares finally adjuſted, and that ſo much thereof as ſhall remain uncalled for within ſuch limited Time, may be applied to and for the Uſes and Purpoſes herein after mentioned; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That as to ſuch Shares belonging to any Captors of Prizes, by virtue of the ſaid Declaration, of the Day appointed for the Payment whereof Publick Notice hath been given in the Gazette for Three Years or more ſince paſt, and which ſhall not be legally demanded before the Twenty fifth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twelve, ſuch Captors, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, ſhall, from and after the ſaid Twenty fifth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twelve, be for ever barred from all Right and Claim to the ſame; and as to any other Shares belonging to any Captors, as aforeſaid, if the ſaid Shares ſhall not be legally demanded on or before the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and thirteen, ſuch Captors, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, ſhall then be for ever barred from all Right and Claim to the ſame.

Treaſury may order the 6000 l. and 1200 l. remaining in the Exchequer, to be paid to the Treaſurer of the Hoſpital.

How the Monies remaining in the Hands of the Receivers of Prizes ſhall be applied.

XIII. And whereas there are remaining in the Hands of the ſaid Receivers ſeveral Sums of Money which may probably be ſufficient to anſwer all Demands of Captors, and alſo to pay the ſaid Rewards, over and beſides the ſaid Sums of Six thouſand Pounds, and One thouſand two hundred Pounds, paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, as aforeſaid, which ſaid laſt mentioned Sums may be preſently applied for the Benefit of the ſaid Hoſpital; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, or the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, ſhall and may, and are hereby authorized and directed to order the Payment of the ſaid Sums of Six thouſand Pounds, and One thouſand two hundred Pounds, to be forthwith iſſued and paid to the Treaſurer of the ſaid Hoſpital, to be by him applied to the Uſes and Purpoſes herein after mentioned; and as to all the Monies which now is or hereafter ſhall be in the Hands of any Receiver or Receivers of Prizes, or Perſons appointed for the ſame, their Executors or Adminiſtrators, belonging to any Captors for their Shares of Prizes, by virtue of the ſaid Declaration, the ſame ſhall be iſſued and applied in the firſt Place for or towards the Payment of the Captors, who ſhall demand the ſame within the reſpective Times aforeſaid; and after the Payment of ſuch Captors, then after the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and thirteen, ſhall be iſſued and applied for or towards the Payment of the Rewards before mentioned, in ſuch Proportions as by the ſaid Declaration is directed, to and among the Flag Officers, Captains, and other Officers and Companies of Her Majeſty's ſaid Ships, their Executors or Adminiſtrators, entitled thereunto, as aforeſaid, if the ſame ſhall be decreed unto them by the High Court of Admiralty; and Liſts of the Ships which ſhall be entitled to ſuch Reward by ſuch Decree, ſhall be tranſmitted to the Receiver or Receivers of Prizes before the Twenty ninth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twelve, and be by them afterwards claimed of the Receiver or Receivers of Prizes before the Twenty fifth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twelve; and Publick Notice is hereby directed to be given in the Gazette by the Receiver or Receivers of Prizes, or Perſons appointed for the ſame, within Fourteen Days after the Royal Aſſent ſhall be given to this Bill, of the reſpective Times appointed for the Captors, and the Perſons entitled to ſuch Rewards, as aforeſaid, to make their reſpective Claims; and the Surplus of the ſaid Monies, after the Payment of ſuch Rewards, or ſo much of the ſame as ſhall be legally demanded, as aforeſaid, ſhall immediately after the Times before limited for ſuch Demand, be iſſued and paid to the Uſe of the ſaid Royal Hoſpital at Greenwich; ſuch Allowances being firſt made out of the ſaid Surplus for the neceſſary Charges of Officers attending for Payment of ſuch Captors on Recals, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Six hundred Pounds, as to the Lord Treaſurer, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, ſhall ſeem reaſonable; any thing in the ſaid Declaration, or any other Matter or Thing to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The Sums to be paid to the Claimers of Rewards, not to exceed 4000 l.

XIV. Provided always, and be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Sum and Sums of Money ſo to be paid and diſtributed to and amongſt the ſaid Claimers, for and towards Satisfaction of ſuch Rewards, ſhall not exceed the Sum of Four thouſand Pounds; and in caſe it ſhall ſo happen that the ſeveral Sums ſo decreed and demanded for and if the Money claimed amount to more, the 4000 l. ſhall be diſtributed by Way of Average.

By 12 Annæ, ſtat. 2. c. 9. §. 66.

Liſts are to be made of the Perſons entitled to Rewards, &c.

ſuch Rewards, at or before the Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twelve, ſhall amount in the whole to more than Four thouſand Pounds, then in ſuch caſe the ſaid Sum of Four thouſand Pounds ſhall be divided and diſtributed to and amongſt the ſaid ſeveral Claimers, by way of Average, in Proportion to their reſpective Intereſts and Demands, which is and ſhall be in full Recompence, Diſcharge, and Satiſfaction of their ſaid Claims of ſuch Rewards from Her Majeſty; which ſaid Average and Proportion ſhall be made up and adjuſted by the Receiver of the Prizes, or Perſon appointed to receive the ſame, by the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and thirteen, who ſhall from thence forthwith pay ſuch Monies as ſhall be due for ſuch Rewards.

Perſons entitled to Rewards, not coming to receive them before 24 June, 1713. ſhall be excluded.

XV. Provided alſo, That in caſe any Perſon or Perſons, who are or ſhall be entitled to receive any Money for or upon Account of ſuch Rewards, as aforeſaid, ſhall not himſelf, or by his lawful Attorney, come to ſuch Receiver, or Perſon or Perſons appointed to pay the ſame, to receive ſuch Money, before the Twenty fourth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and thirteen, then every ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſhall from thenceforth be barred and excluded from any Right to any ſuch Money.

After 25 March, 1713. Receiver of Prizes ſhall pay the Treaſurer all the Captors Money in his Hands above 4000 l.

And after 25 Dec 1712. ſo much of the ſaid 4000 l. as ſhall not be then claimed.

And after 24 June, 1713. all that ſhall not be then demanded.

XVI. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That from and immediately after the ſaid Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and thirteen, the Receiver and Receivers of Prizes, and Perſon and Perſons appointed to receive the ſame, ſhall pay to the Treaſurer of the ſaid Hoſpital, for the Uſe of the ſaid Hoſpital, all and every ſuch Sum and Sums of Money as ſhall be then remaining in his or their Hands of the Captors Money, over and above the ſaid Sum of Four thouſand Pounds, if the whole ſhall be decreed and claimed by the Time before limited, and alſo over and above ſuch Sum and Sums of Money as ſhall be neceſſary for defraying the Charges of attending and making ſuch Payments, as aforeſaid, (not exceeding the Sum of Six hundred Pounds before mentioned) to be paid in ſuch Manner as the Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, ſhall order and direct; and alſo, that from and immediately after the ſaid Twenty fifth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twelve, ſuch Receiver and Receivers of Prizes, and Perſon or Perſons appointed to receive the ſame, ſhall pay to the Treaſurer of the ſaid Hoſpital, for the Uſe of the ſaid Hoſpital, all and every ſuch Sum and Sums of Money of the ſaid Four thouſand Pounds, as ſhall not before that Time be decreed and claimed for ſuch Rewards; and alſo ſhall, from and immediately after the ſaid Twenty fourth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and thirteen, pay to the Treaſurer of the ſaid Hoſpital, for the Uſe of the ſaid Hoſpital, all and every ſuch Sum and Sums of Money of the ſaid Four thouſand Pounds, as ſhall not before that Time be demanded to be paid, as aforeſaid, by the Perſon entitled thereto, or by his lawful Attorney.

Any other Money due to Captors, in the Receivers Hands, after 25 March, 1713. ſhall be paid to the Treaſurer for the Uſe of the Hoſpital.

XVII. Provided likewiſe, That in caſe any other Monies due to Captors, by virtue of Her Majeſty's ſaid Declaration, ſhall be received by ſuch Receiver or Receivers, or Perſon or Perſons appointed to receive the ſame, or ſhall come to, or be in the Hands of any other Perſon or Perſons, at any Time after the ſaid Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and thirteen, the ſame ſhall be paid to the Treaſurer of the ſaid Hoſpital for the time being, for the Uſe of the ſaid Hoſpital.

The Treaſurer ſhall pay the Money, as directed by the Commiſſioners of the Hoſpital.

How the Captors to be paid if the Receiver has not Money ſufficient.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Treaſurer of the ſaid Hoſpital, to pay and diſpoſe of ſo much of the ſaid Monies as ſhall be paid unto him, as aforeſaid, for the Uſe of the ſaid Hoſpital, as the Commiſſioners for the ſaid Hoſpital at their General Court ſhall order and direct; which Order or Orders of the ſaid Court ſhall be a good and ſufficient Diſcharge to the ſaid Treaſurer for all Monies ſo by him paid, againſt all Perſons whatſoever; and in caſe there ſhall not be Money enough in the Hands of the Receiver and Receivers of Prizes, and the Perſon or Perſons appointed to receive the ſame, to pay the ſaid Captors Rewards, and the ſaid Charges of attending and making ſuch Payments, as aforeſaid, That then it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Treaſurer, or any other Treaſurer of the ſaid Hoſpital for the time being, and ſuch Treaſurer is hereby authorized and required out of ſuch Monies, to pay all ſuch Money as ſhall be deficient for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, or any or either of them, to the Receiver of Prizes, or other Perſon appointed for the receiving Prizes, out of the Revenues of the ſaid Hoſpital, which ſhall be, and are hereby charged with, and made liable to the Payment of the ſame, ſo as the ſaid Hoſpital be not charged with more than the ſaid Sums of Six thouſand Pounds, and One thouſand two hundred Pounds, to be received, as aforeſaid, out of the Exchequer.

Money in Receivers Hands during the Reign of W. 3. not demanded before 24 June, 1712. ſhall be paid to the Treaſurer for the Uſe of the Hoſpital.

XIX. And whereas conſiderable Sums of Money may be remaining in the Hands of the Receiver or Receivers of Prizes, or Perſons appointed for the ſame, during the Reign of His late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, their Executors or Adminiſtrators, belonging to ſeveral Captors in the Service of His ſaid late Majeſty, for their Shares of Prizes taken during the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty, which have not been legally called for, or demanded in all this Time; and it will therefore be fit that the ſame ſhould be diſcharged, and ſome Diſpoſition made thereof: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch Monies as ſhall be ſo remaining, as aforeſaid, in the Hands of any Receiver or Receivers of Prizes, or Perſons appointed for the ſame, their Executors or Adminiſtrators, ſhall be paid on or before the Twenty fourth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twelve, to the Treaſurer of the ſaid Hoſpital, to be applied to the Uſe of the ſaid Hoſpital; and ſuch Receiver or Receivers of Prizes, or Perſons appointed for the ſame, their Executors and Adminiſtrators, are hereby required and authorized to pay the ſame accordingly; and the ſaid ſeveral Captors, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, are hereby barred from all Right and Claim thereunto.

Who may be admitted into the Hoſpital.

XX. And whereas no Seamen have hitherto been admitted into the ſaid Hoſpital, but ſuch only as have ſerved in the Royal Navy, notwithſtanding great Sums have been conſtantly paid towards the Support of the ſaid Hoſpital from the Wages of Seamen imployed in Merchants Service; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Commiſſioners of the Admiralty for the time being, or whoever elſe ſhall, from time to time, have Power to direct the Admiſſion of any Seamen into the ſaid Hoſpital, ſhall conſider, as being fully qualified for an Admiſſion into the ſaid Hoſpital, any Seaman, who ſhall offer himſelf to be admitted, and who ſhall produce an authentick Certificate of his having been wounded, maimed, or hurt in defending any Ship belonging to the Subjects of Her Majeſty, againſt the Enemies of Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors, or in taking any Ship from the Enemy, and thereby diſabled for Sea Service; any Law, Cuſtom, Uſage, or Order to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

XXI. Whereas it is become a common Practice, that Merchants Ships and Veſſels carrying Merchandize, do very often ſtop and ride at the Moorings appointed and laid out for the Uſe of Her Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels, and at Her Majeſty's Ships and Hulks in Harbour, near and adjoining to Her Majeſty's Dock Yards, Store-houſes and Magazines, ſuch Merchant or trading Ships or Veſſels not being forced thereto by any Neceſſity or Want of Tide, by which Means Her Majeſty's Ships, Veſſels, and Magazines are ſubjected to Accidents by Fire, and other Damages, through the Careleſneſs of the Perſons left on board ſuch Merchant Ships, as well as to Charges, by weakning and wearing the Moorings; and the Perſons left on board ſuch Merchant Ships, by their long ſtaying at ſuch Moorings, have great Opportunities of running of Goods and imbezilling Her Majeſty's Naval Stores: For Prevention whereof, be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Merchant Ship, or any other Ship or Veſſel, not being One of Her Majeſty's Ships of War, or belonging to Her Majeſty's Royal Navy, or imployed in Her Majeſty's Service, or ſuch Ships as ſhall come to deliver Stores into Her Majeſty's Yards, during their Delivery thereof, ſhall ſtop or faſten to any of Her Majeſty's Moorings, or fix themſelves to any of Her Majeſty's Ships or Hulks, the Captain, Maſter, Commander, or Perſon, having the Care or Command of ſuch Merchant Ship or Veſſel, that ſhall be then on board, ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Pounds for each and every Tide ſuch Merchant Ship or Veſſel ſhall ſtay at the ſaid Moorings, unleſs it ſhall appear that ſuch Merchant Ship or Veſſel was neceſſitated ſo to do, by want of Tide, Streſs of Weather, or other unavoidable Accident; One Moiety of which Forfeiture ſhall be to the Uſe of the aforeſaid Hoſpital, the other Moiety thereof to the Uſe of him or them that ſhall ſue for ſame, together with Coſts of Proſecution, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Privilege, Protection, Wager of Law, Injunction, or more than One Imparlance ſhall be allowed.

If any Ship not belonging to the Navy ſhall faſten to the Queen's Moorings, the Captain, &c. ſhall forfeit 10 l. for every Tide he ſtays at the ſaid Moorings, unleſs neceſſitated ſo to do by Streſs of Weather, &c.

One Moiety to the Hoſpital, the other to the Proſecutor.

XXII. And it is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That upon Notice given to the Perſon commanding on board ſuch Merchant Ship or Veſſel, or under whoſe Care the ſame ſhall then be, by any Officer or Officers belonging to any of Her Majeſty's Ships of War, Docks or Yards, as aforeſaid, to unlooſe from the ſaid Moorings, upon Neglect or Refuſal thereof for the Space of Twenty four Hours, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for every ſuch Her Majeſty's Officer and Officers, to unlooſe ſuch Merchant Ship or Veſſel from the ſaid Moorings.

Upon Neglect to unlooſe, upon Notice given for 24 Hours, Her Majeſty's Officers may unlooſe ſuch Ship from the Moorings.
